Veilingvoorwaarden

- De verkoop geschiedt à contant of via PIN met een opgeld van 25% (incl. alle belastingen).
- De koper wordt geacht voor eigen rekening te kopen en kan zich dus niet op opdracht beroepen.
- De hoogsteieder is de koper. Bij een meningsverschil tussen twee of meer bidders heeft de veilinghouder het absolute beslissingsrecht. De veilinghouder behoudt zich het recht voor kavels te splitsen of bijeen te voegen. Bij vergissingen heeft de veilinghouder het recht zich te herstellen. De veilinghouder heeft het recht zonder opgave van redenen een bod te weigeren.
- Omschrijvingen in de catalogus en alle schriftelijke of mondelinge inlichtingen worden door de veilinghouder en zijn personeel naar beste weten verstrekt.
- De veilinghouder en de veilingmeester behouden zich de volgende rechten voor: zonder opgave van redenen personen alsieder of koper te weigeren; te allen tijde wijziging te brengen in de orde van verkoop; voorwerpen te doen uitvallen of toe te voegen; kopen te combineren of te splitsen; kopen niet te gunnen of op te houden; vergissingen bij biedingen en toewijzing te herstellen, of een koop ongedaan te maken zonder dat eenieder van vergissingen gebruik mag maken en zich in dat geval op een totstandgekomen koopovereenkomst mag beroepen; na toewijzing onmiddellijk gehele of gedeeltelijke betaling te vorderen, terwijl bij weigering of onmacht van betaling de veilinghouder en de veilingmeester het recht hebben de koopovereenkomst ongedaan te maken en daarna het betreffende voorwerp te herveilen en het bod van de nalatigeieder niet weer aan te nemen; indien de koper weigert op eerste verzoek volledige naam en adres aan de veilinghouder bekend te maken en daarop betrekking hebbende legitimatie te tonen, de koopovereenkomst te ontbinden en te herveilen; voorwerpen niet over te schrijven van de rekening van de oorspronkelijke koper op die van een ander. Bij gelijke opdrachten gaat de eerste opdrachtgever voor. Opdrachten zonder limiet worden niet aanvaard; voorwerpen waarover tijdens of kort na de veiling een geschil gerezen is, opnieuw in veiling te brengen, en een eventuele koopovereenkomst te ontbinden.
- De goederen worden geacht in goede staat te verkeren, tenzij anders vermeld in de catalogus. Bij ernstige gebreken die niet in de catalogus vermeld staan, kunnen de objecten worden geretourneerd (met uitzondering van de kavels uit de afdeling 'pakketten' en de kavels waarbij als aanmerking W.A.F. staat vermeld). Dit dient uiterlijk een week na ontvangst te geschieden. Met latere reclames kan geen rekening worden gehouden. Voor de afdelingen kunst, grafiek en affiches gelden bovendien nog de volgende voorwaarden:
  - Alle objecten in de veiling worden geacht naar eer en geweten te zijn omschreven. Omschrijvingen, evenals mondelinge mededelingen vóór of tijdens de veiling gedaan, geven echter niet meer dan een mening weer, en vormen op geen enkele wijze een garantie omtrent authenticiteit, datering, herkomst etc.
  - Behoudens opvallende uitzonderingen wordt de staat van de kavels niet vermeld in de catalogus. Vermelding van enig gebrek impliceert niet de afwezigheid van andere. Ieder object wordt verkocht in de toestand waarin het zich bevindt op het moment van veiling. Aspirant-kopers dienen zich zelf tijdens de kijkdagen van de staat te vergewissen.
  - Het risico van beschadiging van een gekochte kavel berust bij de koper vanaf het moment dat de veilingmeester tijdens de veiling het bod van de koper als hoogste bod aanvaardt. De veilinghouder is bereid een geveild voorwerp tegen gelijktijdige restitutie van de in rekening gebrachte koopprijs en veilingkosten terug te nemen indien een koper binnen drie weken na de veiling ten genoegen van de veilinghouder bewijst dat het geveilde zulke ernstige verborgen gebreken vertoont of de verstrekte omschrijving zo onjuist is, dat indien deze gebreken of de juiste omschrijving aan de koper op het ogenblik van toewijzing bekend waren geweest, hij van de koop zou hebben afgezien of slechts tegen een aanmerkelijk lagere prijs gekocht zou hebben is het. Dit geldt niet indien de gebreken alleen de conditie van het voorwerp betreffen (zoals bijvoorbeeld slijtage en restauraties). Indien een door hem aangekocht object een vervalsing is, wordt de koper ontdonden en de koopsom volledig gerestitueerd, mits het kavel wordt geretourneerd in de staat waarin deze werd verkocht. De veilinghouder is niet bereid tot terugname indien de omschrijving in de catalogus voorafgaande aan of tijdens de veiling werd herroepen en de juiste omschrijving mondeling of schriftelijk aan het publiek werd medegedeeld.
- De kavels worden ingezet op de richtprijs, aangegeven tussen haakjes na elk nummer in de catalogus. Biedingen onder dit bedrag worden niet aanvaard.
- Opdrachtgevers en aanwezigen kunnen ervan uitgaan, dat de veilinghouder de inzet als volgt zal verhogen: Tot € 100,- met € 5,-; van € 100,- tot € 200,- met € 10,-; van € 200,- tot € 500,- met € 20,-; van € 500,- tot € 1000,- met € 50,-; van € 1000,- tot € 2000,- met € 100,-; van € 2000,- tot € 5000,- met € 200,-; daarboven met € 500,-.
- De betaling dient te geschieden à contant of via PIN na afloop van de veiling, tenzij anders met de veilinghouder is overeengekomen. De geveilde voorwerpen worden pas na de volledige betaling eigendom van de koper.
- De veilinghouder is nimmer aansprakelijk voor schade ontstaan aan schilderijlijsten, overige omlijstingen en al wat daarvan deel uitmaakt zoals glasplaten, passe-partouts etc., behoudens het geval dat de schade is veroorzaakt door opzet of bewuste roekeloosheid van de veilinghouder en/of door hem ingeschakelde hulppersonen of personeelsleden. In geen geval is de veilinghouder aansprakelijk voor bedrijfs-, gevolg-vermogens- en/of indirecte schade. De veilinghouder is nimmer aansprakelijk voor enig ongeval of enige vorm van schade iemand overkomen in of nabij de gebouwen of terreinen waar gelegenheid is tot inbreng, opslag of bezichtiging, waar de veilingplaats heeft of waar de verkochte goederen worden afgehaald, behoudens het geval dat de schade is veroorzaakt door opzet of bewuste roekeloosheid van de veilinghouder en/of door hem ingeschakelde hulppersonen of personeelsleden en/of behoudens door een verzekering van de veilinghouder gedekt. Het betreden van de gebouwen of terreinen geschiedt op eigen risico. Na toewijzing is de koper verantwoordelijk voor het gekochte voorwerp. De veilinghouder is nimmer aansprakelijk voor eventuele schade welke na toewijzing optreedt.
- Bij gebreke van betaling is de veilinghouder gerechtigd tot één van de volgende mogelijkheden:
  - 1. Bij niet-tijdige betaling zal de veilinghouder aan de koper rente in rekening mogen brengen gelijk aan de wettelijke rente verhoogd met 3% dan wel – naar keuze van de veilinghouder – 1% per maand, te rekenen vanaf de datum waarop de betalingstermijn is verstreken. Tevens komen alle gerechtelijke en buitengerechtelijke kosten voor rekening van de nalatige koper;
  - 2. Niet betaalde kavels zullen weer ter veiling komen, waarbij het verschil bij een lagere opbrengst voor rekening van de in gebreke gebleven koper is.
  - 3. De veilinghouder heeft tevens het recht om, indien de koper de betalingstermijn overschrijdt en daardoor van rechtswege in verzuim is, de koopovereenkomst schriftelijk te ontbinden. Eventuele gedeeltelijke betalingen vervallen in geval van ontbinding bij wijze van vergoeding van schade aan de veilinghouder die tevens het recht heeft de volledige schade, zoals een mindere opbrengst, en kosten op de koper te verhalen en het geveilde onmiddellijk of later te herveilen of uit de hand te verkopen. De nalatige koper kan geen aanspraak maken op een eventuele meeropbrengst.
- Eventuele verzending van aangekochte kavels is voor risico en rekening van de koper, en geschiedt na volledige betaling van de factuur. Let op: ingelijste werken en breekbare goederen worden niet verzonden.
- Aspirant-kopers wordt er op gewezen dat er in verscheidene landen verboden zijn op de import van materiaal afkomstig van bedreigde diersoorten, inclusief, maar niet enkel deze, korallen, ivoor en schildpad. Derhalve zouden aspirant-kopers zich dienen te vergewissen van de invoer-regelgeving voor aanvang van het bieden indien zij een lot wensen te importeren in een ander land.
- In Nederland is het volgrecht op kunstwerken van toepassing voor levende kunstenaars en voor kunstenaars tot 70 jaar na hun overlijden. Zwingelaar Auctions verhaalt de volgrechtvergoeding op de koper. De volgrechtvergoeding is van toepassing vanaf € 3000,- over de verkoopprijs inclusief opgeld (excl. BTW) en wordt als volgt berekend:
  - 4% van het deel van de verkoopprijs tot en met € 50.000;
  - 3% van het deel van de verkoopprijs van € 50.000 tot en met € 200.000;
  - 1% van het deel van de verkoopprijs van € 200.000 tot en met € 350.000;
  - 0,5% van het deel van de verkoopprijs van € 350.000 tot en met € 500.000;
  - 0,25% van het deel van de verkoopprijs hoger dan € 500.000.De totaal te betalen volgrechtvergoeding is gebonden aan een bovengrens van € 12.500.
- De koper dient op de hoogte te zijn van bovenstaande veilingvoorwaarden.

- 98 [Schouwborg] Theoretische lessen over de gesticulatie en mimiek- gegeven aan de Kweekelingen van het Fonds ter Opleiding en Onderrigting van Tooneel-Kunstenaars aan den Stads Schouwborg te Amsterdam; door J. Jelgerhuis, Rz. Acteur, en lid van het fonds aan voornoemde schouwborg, en van de Koninklijke Academie der Beeldende Kunsten aldaar. Amsterdam, P. Meyer Warnars, (1827-1830), 2 volumes, (4), 114, (2 blank); 117-314, (4) p., 93 plates (until plate 42 engraved, after that lithos), contemporary uniformly gilded green Morocco leather, all etchings gilded, oblong 4to. Spines discoloured; an early section of the second volume letting go. Pages 297-304 (37th lesson) missing or skipped, we were unable to verify this as the online digitised copies (KB and Gent library) both only have 184 pages and the accompanying plates. Very rare Amsterdam stage manual with 37 (of 38) lessons appearing in 6 volumes, for stage actors from the Biedermeier era. The two volumes are of unequal thickness, though this is not illogical: the second volume starts with the thirteenth lesson, this lesson is the first of the "Tweede [en laatste] Gedeelte der Cursus". The author explains some matters further in a "Narigt" (after p. 314): "Ik heb veel aan deze uitgave ter liefde voor de kunst opgeofferd, de kosten daar mede gepaard, zijn zoo groot, dat indien ik niet zelve de Plaatjes had geteekend, van de uitgave niets had kunnen worden; aanvanglijk zijn dezelve in koper geëetst, maar de tijd daaraan besteed werd te groot en men verloor daar aan te veel, ik zag naar middelen uit om die in steendruk te vervolgen, dat ging spoediger. Echter moest ik voor dringender bezigheden dit vaak laten liggen. Van daar de trage gang, welke heeft plaats gehad." The list of signatures following is almost pitifully short, but it must have been a comfort that King William I ordered ten copies.

203 Remco Campert en Hannes Postma. - 36-line original poem (Lamento), written and signed in pencil by Remco Campert, opposite coloured etching by Hannes postma, 25 x 25 cm., titled "Dat ik altijd zou leven in levende stilte", "Voor "Lamento" van Remco Campert", signed and dated 16 August 1991 in pencil, together in foldable wooden dyptich behind glass, 50 x 68 cm (open). Remco Campert and Hannes Postma already worked together in 1984, when they published the collection of poetry "Zeven Vrijheden", with poems by Campert and coloured etchings by Postma. "Ratapan/Lamento" was published in 1999, a publication in honour of the poet's 70th birthday, with a translation of 32 poems in Indonesian (Ratapan is Indonesian for wail, lament). Our poem Lamento was also one of the three poems recited by Campert on the awarding of the Gouden Ganzenveer 2001. A recitation of the poem by Campert himself set to the jazzmusic of Benjamin Herman can be found on YouTube. The term and the poem lamento therefore plays an important part in the heritage (poetic legacy) of Remco Campert. € 300 - € 600

216 INFO. Het maandblad voor de ontheemde stadsmens en zijn vrienden in de stad.- [later titled] Het maandblad voor de buitenmens en zijn vrienden in de stad. Hoofdredacteur: Herman Pieter de Boer; Redactie: Judy De Boer-van Osnabrugge, Conny de Jong Meslier. Adres van de redactie: Beulakerweg, Giethoorn. Number 1-12, doublenumber 15/16 and number 17. Giethoorn, 1972-1973, 15 (of 17) parts, illustrations, original uniform cover. Practically complete series from the archive of journalist Henk Meier, only issues 13 and 18 missing; the first and last issues somewhat waterstained in left upper corner. Nice and rare magazine, originally started by Herman Pieter de Boer to use a spare supply of paper for something, after his move from Amsterdam-Noord to Giethoorn. He also wanted to use the magazine to maintain contact with friends. The magazine obviously turned out to be a success, and after only a few issues it already looks much more professional and there are contributions by, among others, Armando, Cees Buddingh', Jan Cremer, Heere Heeresma, Queen Juliana (letter of thanks for the half-year subscription she received), Dimitri Frenkel Frank, Marga Minco, Jan Montijn, Renate Rubinstein, Nico Scheepmaker, Annie M.G. Schmidt, Peter van Straaten, Herman van Veen en Bert Voeten. A list of subscriptions is included in issue 12, only around 130 names but some prominent Dutch celebrities. An exclusive magazine with a modest layout, produced in small circulation for "those who made history!" € 70 - € 140

217 [Extremely rare magazines] Manuscript door Henk J. Meier.- Publication Amsterdam, Feature Syndicate Publicaties, 1957 in 50 copies, (2),8 pages (only recto), attached with four staples, 27,5 x 21,5 cm. Colophon: "Dit "Manuscript" werd vermeenigvuldigd met vijftig en exclusief in roulatie gebracht (...). Dit is het eerste exemplaar van een reeks omvattende, onuitgegeven manuscripten van jonge - hoofdzakelijk Nederlandse - schrijvers. Bijdragen aan postbus 1264, Amsterdam. Op deze reeks is geen abonnement mogelijk". Wiyh: Scripta Manent no. 1-3. Redactie Bouke Jagt and J. de Gast. Utrecht, own management, March 1959 - May 1959, 3 (of 4) issues with continuing pagination (total 64 pages), originally uniformly stapled cover (small defects). Only one more issue appeared of this very rare magazine (in 1960). Contains contributions by Felicia Brandt, Jean Brüll, Karel N.L. Grazell, Jan Hanlo, Alexis Holst, Henk J. Meier en Nora Petit. Including 13 comparable, obscure, and extremely rare magazines (largely not in Picarta), including Het Plein/En Plein Publique 1-5 (Amsterdam, 1957-1958, red. Henk Meier en Bouke Jagt). € 70 - € 140

218 [First print in beautiful binding] Under the Volcano by Malcolm Lowry.- Londen, Jonathan Cape, 1947, first edition, 395,(1 blank),(1),(3 blank) p., beautifully bound in full light-brown Maroccan leather with ribbed, gilded spine, the plates embellished with gilded lines on in- and outsides (inside with tulips on the corners), signed "Bound by Bayntun / Riviere / Bath England", top and front cut gilded. A magnificent copy of the first print, probably an uncorrected test print on spare paper, because the titles are of unequal size, as well as the titling of two pages at the end with the quite "Le este jardin? (...)". This is also the reason that the bottom cut is ungilded.

Amsterdam, Jan Jansz., ca. 1625), 421,(3)118,(1) p., with (folding) engr. plates and woodcut in-text illustrations, contemporary overlapping vellum with remainders of binding ribbons. This copy is missing at least the title page, which has been replaced (as has damaged page Y4 and a double-paged plate) by a photocopy; text block nearly loose in bindings. Sold WAF. Clearly a much-used copy. Copy with a special provenance: "Desen boeck competeert aen S. de Smeth gesworen lantmeter, bij den souvereijnen Raede geordonneert in Brabant geadmitteert tot nochtens tijdt binnen de parochie ende hoofdbancke van ste. Quintens Lennick [Sint Quintens Lennik] residerende. Actum (...) 1764." Apart from this annotation on the inner endpaper, the first free endpaper has also been annotated elaborately in pen, signed G. van der Meyrs (...), and on the final page another annotation in pen reads "De maten vande lande van brabant". Rare handbook, especially with such a provenance.

Ill. frontispiece by Ottho de Boer and Raffaele Persichini, 68, LX, 290 pp., appendices A-F, incl. folding tables, folded coloured map of the province of Vriesland (49x42 cm.) of the flooded areas and a folded 'gezigt op de overstromde landen in de gemeente Wolvega den 4 en 5 Februarij 1825', with small tear, apart from that very good. Bookbinding by Van Rossum in Amsterdam. € 150 - € 300

- 256 Dichtkundig Praal-Tooneel- van Neerlands Wonderen (in 6 vols.), Embden (=Amsterdam, G. van Hattem), 1748-1754. 8vo., half-leather, title on spine in black and gilt stamping, 7 parts in 6 vols. The 7th part has been added to part 6; it appeared without separate title and frontispiece and starts with: Het gedrag der Stadhoudersgezinden, verdedigt door Mr. A.V.K. (=Elie Luzac te Leiden). 6x the same frontispiece, 6x title in red and black (4), VIII, 266, (5); 292, (4); 283, (5); 269, (3); 272, (2); 16, 222, (2), 112 pp., incl. 8 folding engravings and 4 folding text engravings, ex-libris and stamps. Collection of pamphlets for and against the Doelisten led by Daniel Raap. Satirical, partly erotic texts. The Amsterdam Doelists favoured the prince, consisted of moderate and radical democrats, probably mostly reformed and disgruntled merchants, who, from 1747 to 1750, opposed the power of the mayors, who divided well-paying jobs among each other: they sold or gave away over 30,000 jobs in Amsterdam. Unusual and interesting. Bindings severely rubbed, inside good. (6 in total) € 200 - € 400

257 Economische liedjens, - published by E. Bekker, the widow A. Wolff, and A. Deken. Met plaaten. Deze druk met Plaatjes wordt uitgegeven: te Amsterdam, bij Johannes Allart, 1798. Two vols., (2),237,(1); (3),244-525 p., with 120 engr. plates, contemporary cardboard not uniform, small 8vo. Vol. 1 with library stamp on title page and verso of last plate; bindings a little rubbed on hinges. Pagination and quire signatures sometimes skip here and there, but are similar to Google's digitized KB (Royal Library) copy (erroneously under Economische liedjes, without the 'n' in liedjens). All in all an acceptable, full set of this very rare edition. Vol. 1 includes, after the Allart-title, the title with address in The Hague, I. van Cleef, 1792. The first print of the Economische liedjes appeared in 1781 in 3 vols., without illustrations. The edition of 1792 (Van Cleef) was the first one with the plates. € 150 - € 300

This is a price binding of the Latin School in Delft: The Latin School in Delft was the only school with its own mark on price bindings: the Greek capital Ypsilon. The symbolism of this letter goes back to a story from Greek mythology in which Hercules, standing at a junction, needs to choose between a broad and a narrow road: pleasure and virtue. From around 1730, Delft price bindings were stamped with the coat of arms of the town which incorporates the school's logo. The motto ('per angusta ad augusta': through narrowness to blessedness) and the intertwined branches of thorn and laurel refer to the original symbolism (info Royal Library The Hague). 435 Korenbloemen, Nederlandsche Gedichten van Constantin Huygens.- Ridder; Heere van Zuylichem, Zeelhem ende in Monickeland; Eerste Raad ende Rekenmeester van S. Hoocheit den Heere Prince van Orange. In XIX boecken. 's Gravenhage, Adriaen Vlack, 1658. Sm. 4to., vellum, ill. frontispiece, title in red and black with vignette, portrait of the author by C. de Visscher, (24),1355 pp., a folding portrait of Hofwyck, Hof-stede van den Heere van Zuylichem onder Voorburgh. Huygens was a brilliant linguist. His poems are full of puns, funny reversals, odd combinations and cryptic wordings. This cleverness is apparent throughout his works, but stands out most in a genre invented to demonstrate linguistic ability: the epigram. Huygens himself called them 'sneldicht' (fast poems), which he defined as follows: 'Vraeght ghy wat Sneldicht voor een Dicht is? Het is een Dicht dat snel en dicht is'. Huygens wrote at least 3000 of these epigrams in various languages. Most of these have been collected in the 'Korenbloemen' collection from 1658 and especially in the extended edition from 1672. However, many epigrams have only been transmitted in manuscript. These epigrams in hw often contain little clues to Huygens' modus operandi when writing his poems. He often provided poems he was working on with a date, so it can be inferred how many epigrams Huygens could write on a day. (Copied from website Royal Library The Hague). € 250 - € 500

443 [Slavery] Treffend verhaal van het verbranden der brik de Zes Gezusters- voorgevallen in het Jaar 1841. Pamphlet, 53x45 cm., woodcut illustration of a ship above letter print text. Folded 3x, partially somewhat yellowed. With unidentified collector's stamp (apparently not in Lugt online). Curiously, the Amsterdam Shipping museum has an item ("book") with exactly the same title, except for the date: 1839. Interesting disaster story, which describes the fate of the slaves on board starkly: "Het vergaan van dezen bodem is een der treurigste gebeurtenissen van onzen tijd. Tegen het einde der maand Juny vertrok de fraai gebouwde brik de Zes Gezusters, naar een der Antillische-Eilanden, onder bevel van den Kapt. Raymond Lodoul, behalve de equipage, uijt 22 man bestaande, waarin [waren] er nog 45 passagiers en twee kindere met hunnen moeder, Mevrouw Melville, als ook Mevrouw Palma. [Er breekt op 1 juli, na 5 dagen reizen, brand uit op het schip, men probeert te blussen maar alles is verloren]. (...) De equipage benevens de neger-slaven, even goed wetende dat de sloep het eenigste redmiddel was, sprongen in dezelve en maakten zich er meester van. Wy waren hierop voorbereid, en op onze beurt in dezelve komende, spaarde wij onze slaven niet. Eenige sprongen vluchtende over boord, daarna hetzelfde weder willende bereiken, vielen zy by het opklimmen tusschen het schip en de sloep in het water; deze waren voortaan voor verder leed bewaard. [Volgt een geweldige paniek en chaos en de sloep raakt tot zinkens toe vol]. Er was evenwel nog volk aan boord, onder anderen een Maleische Matroos, die by het verdryven uit de sloep was gewond; deze zyn onvermydelyk lot voor oogen hebbende, hield op de sloep aan, met oogmerk om dezelve te overzeilen; het schip geheel buiten werking bleven, hij moest, wilde hij ons bereiken, naar bakboord over slaan (...). Het schip houdt deszelfs gang niet vol, en gaat op tien vademen afstands de sloep voorbij, en wij komen daar alzoo allenlyk met den schrik af. Maar hoé was het nu in de sloep gesteld! [de sloep zinkt]. (...) Er is evenwel één middel om althans een gedeelte der in de sloep zynde menschen te redden, eene dadelijk moedige, onrechtvaardige wreede onmenschelyke maatregel is daartoe noodig, met opoffering van eenige kan men de overige redden, dit middel wordt terstond aangewend, men geeft een teeken en oogenblikkelyk wordt, er een zestal overboord geworpen (...). Er zyn reeds vyftien menschen in zee geworpen, en de sloep is merkelyk hierdoor verligt, er blyven echter nog twee Neger-dienstboden, (Lavalette en Marcellin genaamd en aan Mevrouw Melville toebehoorende) ook dezen staat het zelve lot te duchten, ieder hunner houdt een kind in den arm, maar het bloedbad heeft opgehouden (...) Lavellette [sic] en Marcellin zyn gered! Deze twee waardige mannen; beiden een beter lot waardig, ziende hoe men hunne makkers heeft opgeofferd, en hoe hunne meesters in de sloep blootgesteld zyn om van hongers en gebrek om te komen, geven de kinderen aan hunne moeder terug, kussen deze de voeten en werpen zich voor onze oogen in zee, na nog alvorens voor ons behoud gebeden te hebben. [volgt het verslag van een zeer barre tocht met nauwelijks voedsel en water en vele doden] (...) Den 15 July (...) kwamen wij op het eiland Isla de Pinos aan land (1000 mylen van waar wy vertrokken waren) (...)."

444 [Illustrated bible] Biblische Geschichten des Alten und Neuen Testaments, - denen Jungen zu leichter Erlehmung, denen Alten zu frischer Behaltung, denen Predigern zu geschwinder Erinnerung, allen zum nusslichen und heiligen Augen-Lust, in hundert fruchtbaren Blättern vorgestellet von Joseph, und Johanne Klauern, Gebrüder (...). Augsburg, Joseph Sebastian Klauer und Johann Baptist Klauer, n.d. (ca. 1750), letter print title page with text in Latin and German side by side and 100 engraved plates, binding by Laurent Claessens (1828-1909): half-leather using older gilt spine strip dated 1770, oblong folio. When newly bound, title pasted, first pages and final endpaper loose(ning), overall a very fine copy. The first edition of this special illustrated bible appeared in 1748 (with date on title page), and in 1757 an edition appeared with the date on the title. Our edition has no date and a slightly different address, it appears to be rare than the dated editions. Another detail about this copy is that it used to belong to the Franciscan college in Tiel, annotation between Latin and German title in pen neatly reads: "Conventus Thiletani FF Min Recollectorum Maneal In Cella VAP Guardiani Anno 1770."

445 [Book binding] Richly gilt red morocco binding with coat of arms Emperor Napoleon III, - both casings (26,5 x 21 cm.) with centrally the large imperial coat of arms and imperial eagle in each corner, ribbed spine with 2 title compartments between 3 compartments with crowned N in laurel wreath, edges casings gilt both in- and outside, edges, gilt, stamp on title page "Bibliothèque du Ministère de la Maison de l'Empereur, No. [in pen:] 302", 4to. Apart from some minor defects, a near-mint copy. Contains: Bulletin de la Société d'Encouragement pour l'Industrie Nationale (...) 42e année. Paris, the widow Bouchard-Huzard, 1843, 588 p., steel engraved plates (numbered 882-914, mostly folding), 4to (plates somewhat foxed in places, pagination skips p. 159-161, but complete). Charles-Louis-Napoléon Bonaparte (1808-1873), Napoleon I's nephew, was president of France from 1848 to 1852 and ruled France as emperor Napoleon III from 1852 to 1870. € 200 - € 400

446 Johannis Cluveri Historiarum Totius Mundi Epitome, - a prima rerum Origine usque ad annum Christi MDCXXX (...). Edition sexta correctior cum uberrimo indice. Leiden, F. Moyard, 1657, (8),900,(34) p., with engraved title by J. van meurs, woodcut printer's mark on letter print title, contemporary vellum with scalloped plates, 4to. Somewhat waterstained in places, but a good copy. Added separately: an 18th-cy note in French, by Alexander Gerard, Oudenaarde). Rare 6th edition of the well-known world history by Johannes Clüver (1583-1633), the 1st edition of which appeared in 1631, also in Leiden. € 250 - € 500

447 [Leo Belgicus] Faminiani Stradae Romani è Societate Jesu De Bello Belgico Decades Duae - (...). Frankfurt am Main, Sumptibus Johannis Beyer, 1651, (8),778,(104) p., with engraved frontispiece map of the Netherlands in the shape of a lion, engraved portrait of the author, 30 folding engraved plates, contemporary green-washed vellum. Poor copy which is missing all portraits and part of the last plate; with old annotations on the tail of the lion and title page; the text block is fully browned and loose in the binding. Sold with all faults. Appeared at the same time as the Mainz edition, Godfrid Schönwetter; only the address is different from our edition. € 600 - € 1200

448 [Emblemata-composite] Duodecim specula deum aliquando videre desideranti concinnata. - Auctore P. Ioanne David Societatis Iesu Sacerdote. Antwerp, Ex Officina Plantiniana, Apud Ioannem Moretum, 1610, (16),184,(15) p., with engraved title and 12 engr. illustrations (full-page) in text, 18th-cy gilt half-leather, small 8vo. Cardboard of casings visible in corners, overall a good copy. First edition of this wonderfully illustrated work about 12 mirrors mankind uses to try and see God, written by Jan David (1543-1613), title page and illustrations by Theodoor Galle (1571-1633). Bound after: Paradisus sponsi et sponsae in Quo: Messis myrrhae et aromatum, ex instrumentis ac mysterijs Passionis Christi colligenda, ut ei commoriamur, et Pancarpium Marianum Septemplici Titulorum serie distinctum: ut in B.Virginis odorem curramus, et Christus formetur in nobis. Auctore P. Ioanne David. Antwerpen, Ex Officina Plantiniana, Apud Balthasarum et Ioannem Moretos Fratres, 1618 (=1607)/ 1607, 2 parts, (16),212,(3); (16),213,(2) p., each part with engraved title page, one unnumbered plate (identical) and 50 numbered engraved plates, each with caption in Latin, Dutch and French. Preface of part 1 with pasted title, somewhat smaller in size and added to binding separately (= from other copy). Only these first 16 pages are 2nd edition, the rest is first edition from 1607: last page with printer's address and date M.DC.VII, the same page in the 2nd edition reads M.DC.XVII [sic]. The second part of our copy has its own title page dated 1607. Two wonderful series of 50 engravings by Theodoor Galle. € 600 - € 1200

449 [Militaria] Mémoires de Monsieur Du Guay-Trouin, - Lieutenant General des Arme'es Navales (...). Amsterdam, P. Mortier, 1756, XXXIX,(9),312 p., with engraved portrait of the author, one large folding profile with ships, 3 folding engr. plates with sea battles and 1 large folding map of Rio de Janeiro and surrounding, modern cardboard, 12mo (waterstained and foxed in places). The memoirs of René Duguay-Trouin (1673-1736) were first published in Amsterdam, 1730, by Pierre de Villepontoux, without authorisation by Duguay-Trouin, who was very unhappy with the edition. He did allow a new edition of his memoirs to appear after his death, which happened in 1740. That edition was an instant bestseller, which was reprinted often. The large ship's profile is 44 x 15 cm. The map of Rio shows the successful military expedition of Duguay-Trouin in 1711. € 300 - € 600

Duplessi-Bertaux (...). Paris, Joubert, 1823, (4), 16 text pages, with engraved portrait of the author and 25 engravings, contemporary half-leather with central part of the original front cover pasted on, oblong 4to. Somewhat foxed in places internally (esp. beginning and end), page 9-10 with professionally repaired tear, text block newly restored to binding with new endpapers. Good copy with very wide margins. Final, post-humously edited album by Jean Duplessi-Bertaux (1750-1818); its publication was delayed by various circumstances during his lifetime. Editor Joubert wanted to honour the artist with this edition: "(...) pour honorer la mémoire de cet artiste inimitable (...) La perte de Bertaux est irréparable et sera long-temps et vivement sentie de tous ceux qui aiment et cultivent les beaux-arts" (text before portrait). Pages 5-16 contain a "Notice historique sur la gravure à l'eau-forte". A note in pencil on the inside reads that the circulation was limited to 176 copies. The author of this annotation clearly did not read French, because he in fact added the prices of the different versions of the edition... The four different versions are mentioned on the front cover: on normal paper 20 francs, on coloured paper 36 francs, before letters and numbers 48 francs and the same but on Chinese paper 72 francs. Our copy is the 2nd most luxury version. € 200 - € 400

- 452 [Manuscript fencing book] - d'après la méthode du Capitaine Saxon de Selmnitz. A Hartmannstadt. Traduit de l'allemand par le Cap. ne Langermann." Manuscript, ca. 1840, consisting of a title page in pen and 21 single-sided written leaves in pen and ink, with supplemented, facing the descriptions, drawings in black crayon on thinner paper, contemporary blue paper wrapper, oblong 4to (28 x 20 cm.). Contents loose(ning), leaves bound with a single thread; somewhat stained, binding frayed on edges. Very special fencing manuscript, of which we could not find a printed version in the KvK. Eduard von Selmitz published the first part of his "Die Bajonettkunst oder Lehre des Verhaltens mit dem Infanterie-Gewehr als Angriffs und Vertheidigungs-Waffe" in 1825, with 31 illustrations. He never wrote more than this first part, but it was so successful that new editions appeared in 1831 and 1832 In 1840, a French translation appeared in Paris with the title "De l'escrime à la baïonnette, ou, Instruction pour l'emploi du fusil d'infanterie comme arme d'attaque et de défense", translated by J.B.N. Merjay. The illustrations in this edition are completely different from our ms. We could not find out which German edition served as an example for Langermann's manual. € 500 - € 1000

Engraved title page somewhat stained and with reinforced margins on the back, overall a very clean, uncut copy in a simple binding with minor defects. The part with the 12 numbered pages should have been bound after 191, (14) pages of the first part. The second (Heda) and third (Hortensius) part mentioned on the engraved, general title, both have their own letter print title page with Utrecht address of Jan Everdsen van Doorn and year 1642. In 1612, a first print of the combined edition of the so-called "Heda and Beka" appeared in Franeker, with annotations by Bernardus Furmerius. Our editions with annotations by Arnoldus Buchelius (1565-1641) is a corrected, extended edition with modernised Latin. Wonderful edition of the medieval chronicle of the northern Netherlands by Johannes de Beka (14th cy) with appendix by Siffridus Petri (1527-1597), and the history of the bishops of Utrecht by Wilhelmus Heda (ca. 1460-1525). Followed by the work of historian Lambertus Hortensius van Montfoort (1500-1574), the 1st edition of which appeared in 1546. € 200 - € 400

- 455 [Illustrated bible] Historie des Ouden en Nieuwen Testaments- verrykt met meer dan vierhonderd printverbeeldingen in koper gesneeden. Amsterdam, P. Mortier, 1700, 2 vols., (16), 282, (8); (26), 163, (11) p., both vols. with engr. frontispiece (of the French edition) and title vignette, 5 double-paged engr. maps (3x with double-paged letter print legenda), 428 illustrations on 214 engr. plates by J. Baptist, J. Mulder and C. Huyberts after J. Goeree, O. Elliger & B. Picart, the N.T. additionally with many engr. end vignettes, original uniform marbled calfskin with, on all casings, a large gilt central ornament depicting a Cherub after the ark with double gilt border and crowned angel's heads on the four corners, ribbed spines richly gilt with the same angels in compartments, folio. Both vols. (lightly) waterstained in margin beginning and ending, marginal worming in places and some minor defects. O.T. spine strip only affixed to bottom hinge; N.T. page 155-156 loose. Still a good, finely bound copy, from the library of theologian Oepke Noordmans (1871-1956). The first Dutch edition of the Great Bible by Mortier, published in the same year as the first French edition. The decoration of the binding is similar to other copies of the Mortier bible, in leather as well as in vellum, so we can assume that this is an editor's binding - just like the Blaeu atlases. Interestingly, the Cherub on the Ark of the Covenant, is as described in the Torah. There, the cherubs are not right and left of the Ark (like the depiction in the Bible), but on the mercy seat. The Hebrew word li al used in this context does not mean 'next to' but 'on' or 'above'. € 650 - € 1300

- 456 [Religion] Histoire générale des cérémonies, mœurs et coutumes religieuses- de tous les peuples du monde (...) de Bernard Picard: avec des explications historiques, & curieuses; par M. l'Abbé Banier (...) & par M. l'Abbé le Mascrier. Vol. 1 and 4. Paris, Rollin Fils, 1741, (4), XX-VIII, 383, (3); (4), 414 p., vol. 1 with engr. frontispiece, both vols. with engr. title vignette and 29 and 14 (i.s.o. 13) engr. plates respectively, also with engr. vignettes, uniformly bound in fine contemporary marbled calfskin with gilt-stamped "Mr. le Petit" on front casing, spine gilt and with two contrasting morocco title labels, folio. Vol. 1 waterstained in hinge margin of the first few leaves, hinges mostly split. Vol. in exceptionally good condition. Reprint of "Ceremonies et coutumes religieuses de tous les peuples du monde" (Amsterdam, 1723-1743), with emended and sometimes drastically changed text and new engr. vignettes, but with the same plates. Vol. 1 mostly deals with Jewish religious customs (p. 49-218), with important large plates of the interior of the Portuguese synagogue in Amsterdam (dedication and Purim-celebration). The rest of vol. 1 is about the catholic faith; a large folding plate of the papal ordination procession in Rome (84 x 31 cm.) catches the eye. Vol. 4, until page 88, deals with "Le schisme d'Angleterre" and in the remainder with protestant rites; the most important plates depict the interior of a Freemason Lodge, the Adamites (nudists) in Amsterdam and (large plate) the baptism in Rijnsburg. Added: vol. 3 of the original edition, Amsterdam, J.F. Bernard, 1733, in modern leather binding (3). € 200 - € 400

460 [Almanac] De Naauwkeurige Hollandsche Almanach voor 't jaar 1765.- Met fraaie Printverbeeldingen verciert, en verrikt met alles wat tot een volmaakte Almanach behoort; mitsgaders veele nutte byzonderheden, nooit voor dezen gedrukt. Amsterdam, Adam Meyer, z.j. (1764), 175,(1) p., with engr. frontispiece, 12 engr. plates in almanac part (p. 1-16, printed in red and black) and 1 folding plate with 12 portraits, contemporary black imitation sharkskin with 4 silver clasps for stylus (missing), all page edges gilt, 16mo. Cut somewhat short in places, but a good copy in an attractive binding.

With old annotations on additionally bound blank leaves at beginning and end. Adam Meyer first published an almanac with this title in 1759. The twelve plates in our edition show, among others, De Hoopende Minnaar, De Verliefte Clarisse, De Bloemist, De Verliefte Schilder, De Docter Voor de Liefde and d'Advocaat and are explained in poetry on p. 109 to 120. The text behind the almanac itself offers information on e.g. national shipping, post offices in Amsterdam, The Hague and Utrecht, the "Sabbath der Joodse Natie", journal of 'curious events' (July 1763 to June 1764, herring fishery) and descriptions of the Cape of Good Hope and Batavia. € 100 - € 200

461 Nieuwe beschryving der walvisvangst en haringvischery.- Met veele byzonderheden daar toe betreklyk (...). Met XXI. fraaye Kaarten en Platen verciert. Door D. de Jong, H. Kobel en M. Salieth. Amsterdam, J. and G. Roos, H. Vermandel, 1792, 4 parts in one vol., VI,96; III,(1),116; (4),116; 114 p., with 6 folding engr. maps, 5 folding engr. plates and 10 other engr. plates, 19th-cy half-cloth, 4to. poor copy: vol. 1 is missing page VII and VIII in the preface with the contents and plate index, vol. 4 is missing pages 115 and 116 with advertisements of the editions by Conradi and Van der Plaats; text block partially (water) stained and loosening, hinges binding split. All plates are present. Contains maps of the Northpole, Spitsbergen, Nova Zembla, Jan Mayen, Greenland and Iceland and the famous large plates depicting whaling, herring fishery and a sperm whale. With: H. de la Blanchère. la pêche aux bains de mer (Paris, ca. 1890, original gilt red cloth, 4to). € 200 - € 400

463 Nouvelle methode pour apprendre facilement et en peu de temps la langue Espagnole.- [By Claude Lancelot]. Sixie'me edition. Reueü & corrigée de nouveau. Suivant la Copie de Paris, a Bruxelles, Chez. Eug. Henry Fricx (...), 1687, (16),134,(6) p., with 2 folding letter print tables, contemporary calfskin with gilt spine, 12mo. Binding shows wear on edges; owner's name with date 1820 on empty endpaper. All editions of this highly successful pocket teaching method for Spanish are very rare. The first edition appeared in Paris in 1660, a second in Paris, 1665. Talented linguist Claude Lancelot (1616-1696) published similar books for Latin, Italian, Greek and English. € 50 - € 100

467 [Unknown Utrecht edition] Johannis Frederici Böckelmanni Jcti Compendium institutionum- Caes. Justiniani, sive Elementa juris civilis in brevem & facilem ordinem redacta, Editio novissima, & omnium emendatissima. (...). Utrecht. Apud Antonium Schouten, 1700, (42),296,(160) p., with engraved title, contemporary vellum, 12mo. With contemporary owner's name "Joan Eijssing" in pen on outside front casing. Very good copy. Extremely rare: we could not find any other copy of this edition, not even in Picarta! The engraved title bears the address of Antonius Schouten, as does the letter print title, but with a 1694 date. In Picarta only one copy can be found with Schouten's address and a date of 1694, so this is rare as well. Johann Friedrich Böckelman (1632-1681), a German jurist, taught law at the University of Leiden from 1670. His innovative teaching method no longer used the large Corpus juris civilis exclusively, but instead used much shorter summaries. This method was used up to the 19th century. Leiden University still has a Legatum Böckelmannianum stipend for excellent students. € 200 - € 400

- 471 [Militaria manuscript] - Original manuscript, ca. 1850, (2),416,(12) p. and several loosely inserted leaves, contemporary half-leather, 4to. Binding damaged but contents in good condition, except for some loose leaves. Unusual, massive work in which the writer has finished the seemingly impossible chore of writing down over 3000 wars in chronological order, with details such as years of important persons (some very long lists of persons for several 18th and 19th-cy wars). The last contributions mentions the war of Montevideo against Rivera, 1846. Under the title, a different hand in pencil mentions the name "v. Loebell", who may have been the writer of the ms. € 50 - € 100
- 472 [Union of Utrecht]. Extract uit de resolutien- van de edele mogende heeren raaden van staate der vereenigde Nederlanden. Donderdag den 28 Augusti 1777. Haarlem, Joh. - 476 [Studentica] Verbaal (...) in de sake van David Whyte (...).- Leiden, Pieter van der Aa, 1719, 47 p., 19th cy half-cloth, folio. Nice publication of various legal pieces following the death of Jean Henry Gir Holstein, former captain or lieutenant of the Dragoons in service to France, caused by the former Leiden student of English descent David Whyte. The two started fighting ("querel") on 28 December 1813 in The Hague, and Whyte killed his opponent with a sword. David Whyte had a Leiden PhD in medicine and, at the time of the incident, still lived in his student room in Leiden, at Rapenburg (corner Groenhazengracht). It is one of the 12 samples (mostly 17th-cy) cited by author P. Marcus in the first 23 pages (dated 8 May 1714), to illustrate the position of the Leiden Rector and Judges w.r.t. students and members of the university in criminal case: they alone were allowed to judge students, which was the case since the founding of the university until at least 1714. Pages 24 ff. are about various legal documents used in Whyte's case. € 100 - € 200

A.M. Berkhoff, A. Grootendorts, Woerden - en Israël en de vreemden of het kwaad der Olympiade in Nederland Zijnde den inhoud van een predikatie over Jesaja 2 vers 6b door M. Hofman, pred. der geref. gem. te Krabbendijke. J. Kruijse, Krabbendijke. The preacher in the latter publication was an outspoken opponent of the Olympic spectacle, and gives a harrowing argument against the Heathen festival: "Vanzelf moet het [Olympische Spelen] komen van een andere zijde en zijn oorsprong hebben bij Satan, die den mensch - welke een zeker besef van zijn ongeluk en onvoldaanheid bij zich omdraagt - door een listige kunstgreep wil laten springen, boksen, schermen, spelen, om zoodoende of spelende in de helle te vallen, of alle zwaarmoedigheid en gedachte aan den dood als rook te verdrijven." Kruijse also considered the strangers that were to visit our country: "Wie weet en zal zeggen welke ijdele kunsten die vreemden invoeren zullen, die ons volk straks gretig zullen overnemen. Wie zal zeggen, hoeveel rustdagen schandelijk ontheiligd-hoeveel geld nutteloos verspild-hoeveel onheilen te wachten zijn en dooden er vallen zullen. Dit is zeker, dat het ongenoegen Gods over Nederland zwaarder, de wolke Zijner oordeelen zwarter en de tijd van hun ondergang daardoor verhaast zal worden." (total 4)

- 642 [Wiener Werkstätte. Julius Zimpel manuscript] Die schöne Müllerin von Wilhelm Müller- Fully calligraphed manuscript, no location listed (Vienna), monogrammed "JZ" in stamp and dated in pencil 1 May 1918 on the first blank page, "Vollendet am 27. April 1918" on the last blank page, 65,(1) pages, with a pasted round portrait photograph surrounded by a decorative gouache border on the title page, four full-page gouaches and 20 small floral illustrations to close the verses, bound by the artist in originally decorated cardboard sides with the aforementioned monogram on the sheep's leather back, floral endpapers, with the upper endpaper showing the small ex libris of the artist, 17x9 cm. With unidentified blind stamp "PH" on first blank. Beautiful original manuscript of the Austrian painter, graphical artist, printer, and craftsman Julius Zimpel, born in Vienna on 30 August 1896 and there taken before his time on 11 August 1925. The text of the poem series Die schöne Müllerin is by the German poet Wilhelm Müller, part of his 1821 "Sieben und siebenzig Gedichte aus den hinterlassenen Papieren eines reisenden Waldhornisten." Franz Schubert displayed the collection of poems in 1823. Julius Zimpel attended the Kunstgewerbeschule from 1911 to 1914, and afterwards apprenticed as a painter to Kolo Moser for two years. In 1916-1917 he taught at programmes for bookbinders and jewellers. After the First World War, the polymath Zimpel contributed to the Wiener Werkstätte by designing in many different crafts. Shortly before his death he succeeded Dagobert Peche as artistic director of the Wiener Werkstätte. In 1911, Julius Zimpel started making booklets such as this little manuscript, the "persönlichen Bücher", followed by the "Zimpel-Bücher", published by bibliophiles (including among others romantic fairytales by Wieland and Hoffman) in the early '20s. € 400 - € 800

668 [Alexander Ver Huell] Uit het verleden- No place, publisher and year (printed at M. Bos & Co, Arnhem), 1864-1866, lithographed title and 17 (of 19) plates, separately published in original portfolio with (damaged) long-stitch binding, large folio (55 x 35 cm.). Two plates are missing. Some plates are somewhat foxed and paper on plates damaged. Gouda Quint 82 ("niet in den handel en slechts in 25 exemplaren gedrukt"); Dyserinck p. 77. All plates signed and dated in pen, excepting two all plates also have a (sometimes very extensive) caption and/or title in pen or pencil. The title, for instance: "Panne-schetsen op steen geteekend door A. Ver Huell. Van elke plaat zijn 25 exemplaren getrokken, waarna de steen is afgeslepen. Gedrukt bij M. Bos en Co. te Arnhem". Plate 5 "Spa voor 1860" consists of 17 smaller illustrations, each of which are accompanied by explanation in pen. The front of the portfolio has a large original drawing in pen and the same details regarding publication as the title page. On the rear side, the portfolio has a smaller drawing titled "Panne-schetsen". Alexander Ver Huell crafted the entire circulation of 25 copies in this manner, according to another - far less complete - copy we have traced. According to the Gouda Quint list, our copy is only missing plates 9 and 12. € 300 - € 600

669 [Alexander Ver Huell] - Drawing in pen and ink on large folio, titled, signed and dated 1865 in pen (small tears in bottom margin). With depiction of two men digging at the foot of the statue of Willem of Orange (the statue on the Plein in Den Haag) and one man trying to chop down a tree with the text "Java" in its crown. In the foreground the text "Nationaliteit" and rocks with the names Helmers and Bilderdijk, the clouds have the shape of a lion. Given the almost exact similarity to another copy (with "nationnaliteit" instead of "nationaliteit") that we traced, Ver Huell drew the design several times. With: "Hazardspel". Litho in the style of Alexander Ver Huell, published by J.H. Hebbard en Comp., 1866, 33.5 x 40 cm. (strengthened with thin paper on the spine). See Gouda Quint 67: "Twintig tafereelen uit het leven van een speler, elk met onderschrift (...)." The game was discontinued by Minerva on 17 November 1846 (scene at bottom), after which the Minervans bought the litho en masse, so that there were no copies left to put into the Leidsche Studentenalmanak of that year, the intended publication of the image. And with 12 other lithos, including Gouda Quint 66 (two lithos of which the second as printed can be found in a deluxe copy of the Feestnummer ter gelegenheid van het vijftig-jarig bestaan van het Leidsche Studentencorps, 1 maart 1889) and finally with a quote handwritten by Ver Huell from Victor Hugo's "Notre Dame de Paris" (see Gouda Quint 119). € 80 - € 160

734 [Daguerre] Historique et description de procédés Daguerrotypie et du Diorama- par Daguerre, Peintre, inventeur du Diorama, officier de la Légion-d'Honneur, membre de plusieurs Académies, etc., etc. Paris, Susse Frères, Éditeurs, Place de la Bourse, 31. Delloye, Libraire, Place de la Bourse, 13, 1839, verso of the French title the address: "Paris, imprimé par Béthune et Plon", (4), 79, (1), (2 "Catalogue des Sculptures"), (1 "L'Exposition (...)") p., with 6 lithographed plates, contemporary gilded half leather. Bound with: Historique et description des procédés dy Daguerrotypie et du Diorama, par Daguerre (...). Nouvelle édition, corrigée, et augmentée du portrait de l'auteur. Paris, A, Giroux et Cie. (...), 1839, (4), 76 pp., with lithographed frontispiece portrait and 6 plates. Ad 1: Small chip in title page and in page 47-48, chip in white margin page 49-50; sl. foxed throughout the bookblock. Good copy, with a contemporary, hand-written notation (2 p.) bound in behind page 62: "Notes sur les nouvelles boites à Jode" (with tearing and slight damage), in which an improvement of the process is described, made known by Daguerre himself: "Monsieur Daguerre vient d'apporter à son procédé une grande amélioration (...)." See the "Bibliography of Daguerre's Instruction Manuals" by Beaumont Newhall: there our edition is listed number 2! The first edition, unavailable for collectors (according to Newhall known in two copies, quite recently a third copy was auctioned) of this highly important "icunable" in the field of photography was published around 20 August 1839. Our edition - which is identical to the first edition aside from the title page and mentioned additions - is listed in the Bibliographie de la France on 14 September 1839. The book was an immediate bestseller, already in 1839 (the year in which the discovery of the process was officially made known) there appeared not only countless French prints, but also translations into English, German, Swedish and Spanish, in 1840 followed by Italian, Hungarian, and Polish editions. The address printed verso of the French title in our copy is a highly important item of identification: the first, as said unbelievably rare print was also printed by Béthune et Plon, and subsequently rejected. Afterwards, the printer provided copies for various publishers, of which our edition appeared first, only a few weeks after the very first print. Only one copy of our edition currently offered on the Internet has the address of Béthune et Plon not on the verso of the half title, but on the back side of the printed cover. Newhall does not mention the existence of variants in his bibliography. Ad 2: Newhall 8. Vague waterstain in outer margin and somewhat foxed throughout the whole book lock. Good copy, with - exactly as in the book mentioned earlier and with identical text but in another hand - behind page 62 a contemporary handwritten notation (2 p.) bound in. "Notes sur les nouvelles boîtes à Jode". Furthermore a contemporary handwritten note is bound in after page 66 with the following French text, loosely translated: "Mr. Precht, director of the polytechnical institute of Vienna, gave me a way to fixate daguerriental images ["les images daguerriennes"]. The procedure exists of putting the plate in a hydro-sulfate-ammoniac solution, to leave it there for one minute and then wash it in a clean bath of water (...)." Ad convolute: two very early editions in one binding, clearly originally the property of a fellow artist and possibly even an acquaintance of Daguerre. € 9000 - € 15000

- 905 Album with dédicases- A4-size album from 1989 with 6 dédicases. Berck (Sammy - detailed drawing), Gerrit de Jager, Eric Heuvel and Jan Kruis (2 x of Jan and one of Jans in multiple colours, nicely detailed) - and one other. Lot 905 to 915 have been collected on Nederlandse Stripdagen. The provider asked for dédicases by comic artists but realized he had to ask the artist for something else to pique their interest. He decided to challenge artists with a black sheet and crayons he supplied himself. It was a good move; most artists went along, several asked him if he wanted to come back later to give them time to make something worthwhile. Among those big names such as Don Lawrence and Hans G. Kresse (who was rarely persuaded to make a drawing). € 150 - € 300
- 906 Peter de Smet - dédicace de Generaal- On black paper with crayon detailed drawing of de Generaal. "Voor Jan", signature lower left corner. € 60 - € 100

In which heer Bommel tries to win back the Beker van Onk that was promised to the best Athlete. Exasperated, he's skiing down the Brukebeen Schans towards a canyon... Toonder Studios, produced for the Swedish market, edited from the story published in Donald Duck magazine in 1959. In the '50s, the Swedish daily Dagens Nyheter was interested in publishing the then current Tom Poes series in Donald Duck magazine. The paper made a quarter of the youth page in its Sunday edition available. In order to keep up with the edition in Donald Duck, the original pages (mostly 3) were edited into a full page. To this end parts were omitted, re-drawn and new pictures were added. Because of this procedure, these pages have more speed and are more dynamic than the original stories. This dynamic is particularly visible on this page. The Swedish text was later added in Stockholm. This copy is still in Dutch. € 750 - € 1250

934 Dick Vlottes (1932)- Two original pages from 'Leonie, het Horoscoopmeisje', published in Tina, 1977. Indian ink on paper. 50 x 42 cm. (total 2) € 50 - € 90

1181 [WW II] Very important manuscripts]- Manuscript from the prisoner's camp in Neu-Brandenburg, written there late 1944, the foreword written and signed by De Generaal majoor kampoudeste N.T. Carstens (late 1944). 103 single-sided written pages of text with 10 drawings in pen and crayon bound inbetween, many illustrations in the text itself, bound in contemporary green gilt-lettered cloth, 30x21cm. A note in pen on inside front cover: "Ter gelegenheid van de jaarwisseling aangeboden aan Dr. L. Koster - Officier van gezondheid 1e klasse, Chef M.G.D. Oflag 67, Barakcommandant van Barak 13, Januari 1945." Separately inserted are some memorabilia, including a poem which instructs the one holding the book to do so carefully and with clean hands; a page with the text "Bijeenkomst ter gelegenheid van het 74ste lustrum der Leidse Universiteit, gehouden op woensdag 7 maart 1945 in Oflag 67 te Neu Brandenburg" (with 43 original signatures of the participants and a drawing of the city hall tower in Leiden); A neatly written report on grid paper of a game of bridge played on 26 December 1944, a drawing of the barracks where the game was played on the front of the blue paper folder that holds it; an uncompleted, signed menu dated "Neu Brandenburg, April 1944" titled "ter herdenking van de herovering van Stanislaw", with a map of the city's surroundings (the prisoner's camp was moved from Stanislaw to Neu-Brandenburg just before the reconquest). Next to the foreword and a necrology, the book itself consists of two parts: Part I: "Het wereldgebeuren" (with the political and military developments of 1944) and Part II "1944 achter prikkeldraad" (with the developments, events, and activities in the prisoner's camp). With: a similar album of the same size, in which complete similar text is written out but in a different hand, and differently (even finer than the first album) illustrated, bound in brown cloth with gilt-lettered title "het zesde oorlogsjaar" on the front cover. Two extremely important, touching original yearbooks, where the second has a loose inlay sheet in which the creation of the books is explained in calligraphied text: "(...) Een tenslotte met zeven geheime radio-ontvangers werkende Berichtendienst, met Berichtenofficieren in alle barakken, heeft in "Oflag 67" bij Neubrandenburg deze afzondering verbroken en allen [sic] krijgsgevangenen in dit kamp meermalen daags voorzien van het wereldnieuws, van de geallieerde berichten betreffende het verloop der oorlogshandelingen en van de dagelijksche mededeelingen van Radio Oranje over den toestand in het Vaderland. Deze berichtgeving maakte het mogelijk aan het eind van 1944 een jaaroverzicht samen te stellen, waaraan een overzicht van ket kampleven werd verbonden. Elk der eenentwintig halve barakken verwerkte dit overzicht, op eigen wijze, met eigen zeer beperkte middelen en in het geheim, tot een voor de bewoners der halve barak bestemd exemplaar." Aside from these "normal" specimens the inlay also mentions a copy for Queen Wilhelmina, which brings the total number of copies to 22, of which our lot has two. Considering the elaborateness and the inlay, the brown cloth-bound copy might even be the copy for Wilhelmina. The green cloth-bound copy (the copy for barracks 13) was auctioned in May 1996 at Bubb Kuyper in Haarlem, where it sold for 2800 Guilders.

Brill, 1922-1923, 2 vols., XVI, 602; XII, 705 p., 3 folding maps including one folding coloured map inserted in envelope on back cover, 28 pictures, text illustrations, original uniform gilt cloth, 4to. Sl. foxed and inside hinges vulnerable as usual, good set. € 100 - € 200

1202 Camera-beelden van/camera pictures of Sumatra, Java & Bali- Door/by K.T. Satake. Soerabaia, the author, 1935 (printed by Hood & Co, Middlesborough), (6) p. introductory text in Dutch and English, 13 coloured plates (fruits) and 505 photographic illustrations on 336 plate-pages, original decorated cloth, large 4to. Slightly later note in pen on unused endpaper, else a very good copy of this rare, self-published work. € 100 - € 200

1203 [Military] Het Legioen van Mangkoe-Nagoro- H.F. Aukes. Bandoeng, A.C. Nix & Co, 1935, XII, 373 p., 18 photographic images on 8 plates, genealogy in the text, original gilt cloth. Sides sl. stained along edges, but a good copy of a rare work with an appearance better befitting the Germany of those days. € 100 - € 200

1204 [Raffles] Memoir of the life and public services of sir Thomas Stamford Raffles- particularly in the government of Java, 1811-1816, Bencoolen and its dependencies, 1817-1824; with details of the commerce and resources of the Eastern Archipelago, and selections from his correspondence. By his widow. A new edition, in two volumes. Londen, James Duncan, 1835 (printed by W. Clowes & Sons), 2 vols., XI, (1), 437, (1); VI, (2), 468 p., steel-engraved portrait, folding aquatint of the Rafflesia Arnoldi, folding facsimile of a letter, 2 (large) folding, on steel-engraved maps of Singapore and the Indian archipelago, contemporary uniform half calfskin, gilt spine with contrasting title shields and gilt stamp of the Legislative Council Library. Spines and corners of sides with superficial smoke damage (upper hinge vol. 1 vulnerable), on inside sl. foxed. Good copy of the rare second edition (first edition: 1830). € 250 - € 500

1191

1205 [Raffles] The life of Sir Charles Stamford Raffles- by Demetrius Charles Boulger. Londen, H. Marshall & Son, 1897, 1st ed., XV, (1), 403 p., portrait, maps and sheets, original gilt cloth with top edge gilt, 4to (small defects, good copy). € 50 - € 100

1206 [Raffles] Antiquarian, architectural, and landscape illustrations of the History of Java- by the late sir Thomas Stamford Raffles (...). With a large map of Java and its dependencies, and several interesting plates now first published. Londen, H.G. Bohn, 1844, letterpress title page and plate index (3 p.), 10 hand-coloured aquatints by W. Daniell and 82 uncoloured etchings and aquatints (1x double-paged, 1x folding), modern leather, parts of the original spine pasted on, top edge gilt, large 4to. With ex libris and occasional blindstamp of the Explorer's Club New York, James B. Ford Library. Final quarter of the bookblock waterstained in upper margin. The first edition of Raffles' monumental standard appeared in 1817, in 4to. The second edition of the text, for which this new edition of the plates was published, appeared in 1830. The difference in publishing dates explains the fact that the text and atlas are rarely offered for sale together. Compared to the first edition, our edition has 22 additional plates. The 10 aquatints are newly engraved for this edition. € 700 - € 1200

1204

1207 [Raffles] The history of Java- By Thomas Stamford Raffles (...). In two volumes. With a map and plates. Londen, printed by Cox and Baylis for Black, Parbury and Allen, and for John Murray, 1817, 2 vols., 1st ed., XLVIII, 479; VIII, 288, (4), CCLX (appendix) p., large folding engraved map, 2 frontispieces, 65 aquatints/engravings, 10 of which hand-coloured costume plates, contemporary uniform calf, spines richly gilt with 2 contrasting title shields, 4to. Both volumes lack the half title and are equipped with a new spine, using the original spine strips (damaged). Vol. 1 has p. 361-362 unnumbered and added as plate to the plate index as usual; vol. 2 has p. 239-240 incorrectly bound after p. 247. In all, a good set. Only 900 copies were printed of this first edition. Remains the major standard on Java. € 2000 - € 4000

1206

1208 [New Guinea] De bergpapoea's van Nieuw Guinea en hun woongebied- C.C.F.M. Le Roux. Leiden, E.J. Brill, 1948-1950, 2 text vols. and 1 atlas in original uniform gilt cloth. Text vols.: XXV, (1), 484; X, 485-1029, (2) p., with frontispiece portrait, 142 images on 83 plates and 12 text illustrations, 4to. Atlas: (11), 17 index/explanation p., 118 plates and 4 (large) folding maps (1x loosely inserted in back cover), oblong folio. A beautiful, exhaustive standard in good condition. € 100 - € 200

Leipzig, Arnoldische Buchhandlung, 1857, 3 vols., VI, 483, (1); XII, 964; X, 316 p., with folding chromolitho, many folding lithographic profiles and maps of mountains and volcanoes, illustrations in the text, contemporary uniform gilt half leather, large 8vo. Former library copy with 9 chromolithos missing. Volume 1 has a damaged spine strip and is waterstained, all volumes with library stamps. Sold w.a.f. Rare German edition of a standard on Java, the first Dutch edition of which appeared in episodes from 1849 to 1854 titled "Java, deszelfs gedaante, bekleeding en inwendige structuur" (from episode 11 titled "Java zijne gedaante, zijn plantentooi en inwendige bouw"). Our edition is a translation of the second Dutch edition (1843-1854). € 200 - € 400

1211 [Palembang] Proeve eener beschrijving van het gebied van Palembang- (Zuid-Oostelijk gedeelte van Sumatra,) door W.L. de Sturler. Met eene Kaart en eene Tabel. Groningen, J. Oomkens, 1843, (8), 210 p., with folding lithographed map, 1 folding litho "verklaring van het Bentjong-schrift" and 1 other litho, contemporary gilt-lettered half morocco. Bound with: Bijdrage tot de kennis en rigtige beoordeeling van den zedelijken, maatschappelijken en staatkundigen toestand van het Palembangsche gebied, door W.L. de Sturler. Ibid., J. Oomkens J. Zoon, 1855, (4), 177, (3) p. Good copy from the library of J.G. de Groot Jamin Jr., with his name in gilt letters on the base of the spine strip. Rare description of Palembang, with notes concerning the Pasoemahs and the Orang Koeboes. € 100 - € 200

1212 Vrijmoedige gedachten over Neêrlands Indië- en over de regering van den gouverneur-generaal Van der Capellen, door J.E. Doornik, med. doct. Amsterdam, C.G. Sulpke, 1826, (4), XVI, 314 p., contemporary half leather with gilt back. Former library copy with stamps, labels etc. In this work Jacob Elisa Doornik (1777-1837) critically reflects on the colonial government of Godert van der Capellen. Doornik advocates extensive reforms supporting the local population. The work Jacob Elisa Doornik: een vroeg-negentiende eeuws koloniaal criticus by Wim van den Doel and Pierre Vinken appeared about the author. € 100 - € 200

1213 [Military] Oost-Indische oorlogen- of listen, hinderlagen en verdedigings-wijze der inlandsche volkeren, waargenomen in de onderscheidene oorlogen op de Moluksche eilanden, Cheribonsche, Bantamsche en Malakkasche landen; in de jaren 1817, 1818, 1819 en 1820. Ten dienste der officieren en onder-officieren, dienstdoende in de Indische armee (...), door den Majoor P.F. Vermeulen Krieger (...). Voor rekening van den Auteur. Breda, Broese & Comp., 1829, (2), VIII, 81, (3) p., with 6 images on 5 lithographed plates, contemporary half leather. Two library stamps on title page, spine sl. discoloured, else a good copy, authenticated with the author's signature in pen. The title page asks for 6 plates; comparison with the copy digitalized by Google Books shows there should be 5 plates with 6 images. For exhaustive information on this work, see J.A. de Moor, "Een vroegen handboek over de guerrilla in Nederlands-Indië: de Indische oorlogen van Vermeulen Krieger" (article digitally available on www.collectie.legermuseum.nl). € 200 - € 400

1215 [Borneo] The expedition to Borneo of H.M.S. Dido- for the suppression of piracy: with extracts from the journal of James Brooke Esq. of Sarawak (...). By Captain the Hon. Henry Keppel, R.N. Third edition. With an additional chapter, comprising recent intelligence, by Walter K. Kelly. Londen, Chapman and Hall, 1847, 2 vols., XIV, 429; VIII, 315 p., both vols. with lithographed frontispiece, 6 (large) folding lithographed maps in total, 9 lithos and 1 folding table, original blind-stamped cloth. Both volumes sl. waterstained (vol. 2 worse, including the binding) and some smaller defects. Altogether a good set. Famous account of the 18-month (1843-1844) maritime anti-piracy mission at Borneo by Keppel and Brooke. The first edition appeared in 1846; the fact that a third edition was needed in 1847 says a lot about the popularity of the book. € 200 - € 400

1216 A visit to the Indian Archipelago, in H.M. Ship Maeander- With portions of the private journal of sir James Brooke, K.C.B. By Capt. the Hon. Henry Keppel. New Edition. Londen, Richard Bentley, 1853, XVII, (3), 586, (2) p., with large folding lithographed map loose in back pocket and with 8 tinted lithos after O.W. Brierley, original blind-stamped and gilt cloth, 4to. Inside sl. foxed, ex libris on inside front cover. Binding sl. worn and stained, hinges on inside loose. An acceptable copy. This new edition is less current than the first edition, which appeared in the same year. The ship Maeander was selected to bring the sick Governor Brooke to Labuan. After its visit to Labuan, the ship continued its journey to Hong Kong and from there back to Sarawak and Borneo. The book contains the account of Brooke's Sarawak expedition from 1838 to 1842, after which the Sultan of Brunei rewarded him with the title Raja of Sarawak. € 300 - € 600

1217 Apo-Kajan. Een filmreis naar en door centraal-Borneo- H.F. Tillema. And with: Het Paradijs van Java by Wijnand Kerkhoff. Leidschendam, the author, n.d. (1939), (12) p. introduction and index and 68 p. with images, original gilt cloth, folio. Tillema's works in this lot are beautiful verbal and visual accounts of the author's travels. € 70 - € 140

1218 "Kromoblanda": Over 't vraagstuk van "het Wonen" in Kromo's groote land- H.F. Tillema. Den Haag, H. Uden Masman (1-5)/ N.V. "Adi-Poestaka" (6), 1915-1923, 6 vols. in 7 bindings, with coloured maps, plans and countless pasted photographic plates, contemporary uniform half cloth with the original front cover pasted, folio. Good set with some small defects such as (remains of) library stickers on front covers and the usual foxing, complete with the exceptionally rare 6th volume! Hendrik Freerk Tillema (1870-1952) owned a small business in Semarang named "Hygiëna", which produced bottled water, together with his Semarangse Apothek. He was obsessed by improving the daily hygiene of the local population, and wrote about the awful living conditions in the city kampongs in books published by himself. He returned to the Netherlands in 1914 and there wrote his most important work "Kromoblanda".

1250 Bericht van den tegenwoordigen toestand der Bataafsche bezittingen in Oost-Indië- en den handel op dezelve; door Dirk van Hogendorp. (Delft, M. Roelofs waert, 1800), 2nd ed., XVI,194 p., modern gilt leather. Title missing. Several pages with owner's stamp in white lower margin. Possibly the most important work concerning colonial reforms in Indonesia, with ideas that were very progressive for the time. The first edition from 1799 was not intended for commercial purposes by the author, but became immediately highly sought after, which led to a second edition with approval but no further cooperation from the author. Because of this publication, the first edition of which appeared in 1799, the Dutch government felt compelled to set up a commission to investigate Van Hogendorp's proposals. The proposals concerned, among other things, free trade and agriculture for the Javanese and the introduction of a lease system similar to that of the British in India. The commission rejected the proposals, but Van Hogendorp's program was introduced by Raffles during the British rule of Indonesia (1811-1816).

1296 [Suriname] Reize naar Surinamen en door de binnenste gedeelten van Guiana - (IV vols. in 2 bindings).

Door den Capitain John Gabriel Stedman, met plaaten en kaarten, naar het Engelsch (vert. J.D. Pasteur), Amsterdam, Johannes Allart, 1799-1800. Large 8vo., new bindings, half leather with marbled sides, gilt-stamped and red title on spine, 4 title pages, XV l,339,VIII,306,VIII,350,(1),VIII,308 p., complete with 37 prints, 2 plans and 3 maps, all copper-engraved. Vol. I. p.339 dam. outside text, else in very good condition. This is the clean version of his diary. The latter was found circa 1940 and shows that the published edition omitted quite a few things. His loose sexual activities and the most horrible and violent experiences are not found in that edition. In 1978 Stedman's own manuscript from 1790 was found in the James Ford Bell Library of the University of Minnesota; in 1988 the original manuscript was published for the first time. (total 2)

Fine images with skilled use of gold-print technique. Rare work. € 120 - € 240

1348 [Erotic Indian miniatures] Lot with 36 gouaches- 19th/20th century, 6 x 6 to 16.5 x 12 and 18 x 9 cm. Large collection original gouaches in good condition, including series of 4, 5, 7 and 8 gouaches and a highly decorative series of 3 with fully detailed background. € 300 - € 600

1349 Clip album- with 5 original drawings and ca. 50 steel engravings, England, ca. 1830, nicely bound in full red morocco with blind-stamped and gilt sides, gilt spine titled "Scraps", all cuts plated, 4to. Inserted in wrong direction (binding upside down when viewed); else with minimal defects. An original owner and friends made humorous notes on an endpaper near a piece of fabric originally pasted as a sort of relic in the album, but is now missing (names R. Greenhow, Elizabeth Hutchinson, Smith Pyne, Francis March and illegible, dated 1829). Contains besides the steel engravings (various subjects) drawings in mixed technique of ships on a river with buildings in the background (both ca. 12 x 17 cm., 1x signed...) and 2 drawings in mixed technique of hounds, signed "A. East" (both 7.5 x 11.5 cm.). € 300 - € 600

1350 [Chinese export gouaches] Album with 24 pasted gouaches- on "pith" paper, all ca. 11 x 7.5 and 10 x 6 cm., the album of red half morocco with richly plated spine and plated front cover, all cuts plated, oblong folio. Cardboard carriers and gouaches sl. foxed and the front cover has some worn spots. Nice album of these gouaches with their characteristic bright colours. Contains an interesting series of 7 opium-smoking men and women, several scenes probably related to the production of silk, and a series of 12 richly dressed men, women and children. € 350 - € 700

1351 "Album à C. d'Espierres"- Album with pasted heraldic title in pen signed C. d'Espierres '86" and with 24 pasted drawings in various techniques and sizes and with many different subjects, mostly signed and dated '86 to '89, original cloth, oblong folio. Also contains 4 reproductions after Jules Breton. Drawings of landscapes, buildings, flowers, poultry and dogs. € 200 - € 400

1352 Album with 36 pasted drawings- various techniques and sizes, mostly either signed or with contemporary description, several dated 1832, contemporary gilt and blind-stamped full leather in Oriental style, all cuts gilt, oblong 4to. Sides loose (spine strip) missing. Interesting album, includes: a drawing signed "Victorine de Steenhault" (mother with child, black chalk), three pretty pen drawings with grey and brown wash of a puppet show, a beggar and two boys, all three attributed to P. Monti, a rider on horseback in black chalk attributed to E. Der Bueren and a drawing in black chalk of a house signed "Edward de Bueren 1832", a watercolour of a farm titled "Septuagaine" and signed "A.J. Duncan Fecit 1832", and drawings attributed to E. de Crombrughe, A. Goethals, Leon Compans, E. Huytens, Verboecheven, M. de Liennander and C. d'Hane. Also several drawings with Oriental subjects and several fruit prints. € 400 - € 800

1353 "Clovis ou la France Chrestienne"- Title in pen and grey wash, followed by a series of 24 pasted, numbered and "N.C.F." monogrammed, etched plates, ca. 1700, bound in half sheep leather, 8vo. Also contains several contemporary drawings in pencil on the reverse sides of the print leaves. The drawn title is an exact copy of the frontispiece of the original French edition of the book by Jean Desmarts de Saint-Sorlin (Paris, 1666), an edition without illustrations. How the title and engravings are related we have not been able to discover. Following Nagler, the monogram N.C.F. can belong to Nicolas Chapron (1st half 17th century) or Nicolas Chevalier (working in Paris, early 18th century). Of the latter, proof engravings for goldsmiths are known. Considering the decorations above and below the engraved scenes in our series, it appears he is the engraver. € 100 - € 200

1400 China. Toestand en vooruitzichten van dat rijk;- inzonderheid ten aanzien der evangelie-verspreiding; met narigten omtrent de oudheid, uitgestrektheid, bevolking, benevens de letterkunde en godsdienst der Chinezen. By W.H. Medhurst (...). Uit het Engelsch vertaald door Adr. van Deinse (...). Rotterdam, Van der Meer & Verbruggen, 1839, 2 vols, XX,303; IX,(1),302,(2) p., hand-coloured lithographical frontispiece in volume 1, 10 wood-engraved illustrations on 5 plates, both parts with (identical) wood-engraved title ills., 1 folding table, contemporary cardboard (vol. 1)/ original lithographed cardboard. Both volumes with loosening boards and some wear on the outside, but clean and complete on the inside. Very rare translation of "China, its state and prospects, with especial reference to the spread of the gospel" (Londen, 1838). Part 1 contains chapters on the people, the civilisation, government and laws, language and religion of China and it handles the Roman-Catholic and Protestant missions to Canton. Volume 2 contains chapters on the missions to Malakka and Batavia, report of travels, encounters and operations in several Chinese provinces and concludes with a chapter on needs for the Chinese Mission. The pages 299 and following of the second volume contain very interesting lists of books printed in Canton, Malacca, Batavia, Penang and Singapore, mostly mentioning the amount of printed copies. Medhurst was an educated book printer and printed books on his own lithographic printing press in Batavia, including his English - Japanese dictionary (1830). € 350 - € 700

Kappler bracht in totaal 43 jaar van zijn leven door in Suriname. In 1836 arriveerde hij als huursoldaat in Suriname. Hij werd gestationeerd op verschillende wachtposten in de kolonie. Dat stelde hem in staat veel van het land te zien en te bestuderen. Zo bezocht hij regelmatig plantages en keek met belangstelling naar de gewoonten en rituelen van de slavenbevolking (...). Kappler is bij uitstek dé chroniqueur van het 19e eeuwse Suriname. Hij schreef maar liefst vier boeken over zijn 'geliefde Suriname'. Dat deed hij niet met de afstandelijke blik van een toevallige passant maar als een scherp waarnemer wiens ziel en zaligheid diep in de binnenlanden van Suriname lag. In 1879 vertrok Kappler naar Duitsland. Hij overleed aan de gevolgen van een hersenbloeding en werd op 10 oktober 1887 in Stuttgart begraven. Onder deze titel [Holländisch-Guyana] verscheen in 1881 Kapplers derde boek. Zes jaar eerder publiceerde hij Over kolonisatie met Europeanen in Suriname (1875). In Holländisch Guyana beschrijft Kappler, na zijn terugkeer in Duitsland, over zijn ervaringen tijdens zijn verblijf in Suriname. Van dit boek verscheen in 1883 een Nederlandse vertaling onder de titel Nederlandsch-Guyana. Beide werken zijn moeilijk vindbaar." € 200 - € 400

1506 Voyages autour du Monde entrepris par Ordre de sa Majesté Britannique- actuellement regnante, pour faire des Découvertes dans l'Hémisphère Austral. Exécutés successivement par le Chef d'Escadre Byron, les Capitaines Wallis, Carteret & Cooke, dans les Vaisseaux le Dauphin, l'Hirondelle & l'Endeavour. Redigés par M. Jean Hawkesworth sur les Journeaux tenus par les divers Commandans, & d'après les papiers de Mr. Joseph Banks. Traduit de l'Anglois. Amsterdam/Rotterdam, E. van harrevelt etc., 1774, 4 vols., (6),IV,XVI,(2),XXXII,388; (6),536; (6),394,(1); (2),VIII,367,(1) p., with 52 mostly (large) folding engraved maps and plates, contemporary uniform half leather, gilt backs and with two contrasting morocco title shields, 4to. Vol. 1 without half title, else a very good copy apart from some minimal defects, with all plates according to the binder's index in the first volume. In Paris/Nyon appeared simultaneously a practically identical edition titled confusingly enough "Relation des voyages (...) pour faire des découvertes dans l'hémisphère méridional". A copy of that edition digitalized by Google shows that, with the exception of title and publishers, it is the very same book. In Lausanne that same year another edition with exactly that last title appeared, but in two vols., in 8vo. Our edition is apparently the rarest. The original English edition of this richly illustrated travel account appeared in 1773 (see: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/John\_Hawkesworth\_\(book\_editor\))). Contains large maps of New Zealand, New South Wales, a large part of the Pacific, the Strait of Magellan, the Falkland Islands and the island of Otahtiti, and multiple beautiful engraved scenes in Otahtiti and Oulietéa. € 1500 - € 3000

Chatelain etc., 1764, (8),X,602 p., with engraved frontispiece portrait, 4 engraved maps (3x folding), three folding engraved plates of battles and 1 folding letterpress brigade overview, contemporary half leather, 4to. Sl. (water) stained, letterpress plate with sm. tear, leather across hinges split, yet still an acceptable copy. The first 40 edition (that same year an 8vo edition appeared) of this extensive biography of Gustav II Adolph (1594-1632), or Gustav Adolph the Great (the Lion of the North), King of Sweden from 1611 to his death in 1632. He was the son and heir of Charles IX of Sweden and of Christina of Holstein-Gottorp and the father of Queen Christina. Contains fine maps of Pomerania, Saxony, the Rhine and "Beavierre & aux environs" and plates of the battles at Leipzig, Lech and Lützen. The brilliant portrait is engraved by Paulus Pontius after a painting by Antony van Dijck. € 200 - € 400

1510 [Costumes] La Géographie en Estampes- ou Moeurs et Costumes des différens Peuples de la Terre. Paris, Chez Lecerf, graveur (...) et a la Librairie d'Éducation de P.re Blanchard (...), n.d. (ca. 1820), (II),196 p., with engraved frontispiece, title and 27 (of 28?) costume prints, original printed cardboard, oblong 8vo. Without the print depicting the French and English costumes (we could not find out whether that print belongs in this edition). Bookblock and some quires sl. loose, sl. foxed; plainly rebacked with paper strip; edges sides worn. The first edition of this finely illustrated costume book. Later editions (for example the third edition of 1825) saw maps of the 4 continents being added, something that was only mentioned on the half title.

1511 [India] Chasses aux Indes- par. M. Castillon professeur a Sainte Barbe. Illustrées de huit superbes gravures a deux teintes par Victor Adam. Paris, Librairie d'Éducation, A. Courcier, n.d. (1861), 46,(1) p., with 8 tinted lithos, original colour-lithographic cardboard, oblong 4to. Note on half title; apart from some slight wear, inevitable with a fragile binding such as this one, a remarkably well-preserved copy. Spectacular hunting scenes in which the hero of the story, Maxime, sends to another world one by one a wild boar and panther, a swan, a buffalo, an elephant, a rhinoceros and a tiger, obviously each time with great danger to his own life.

1512 Tableau de l'Univers en général, et de la France en particulier- Où se trouvent la description de chaque pays, leur religion, leur gouvernement, leur commerce, leurs productions, leurs monnoies évaluées à celles de France, & les routes qui conduisent aux villes principales. Paris, Lecerf, 1768, 4 vols., 18,423(=417); (2),425-822; XIII,(1),477,(3); (2)376(=374) p., with 2 frontispieces, 15 folding engraved maps and 1 other folding plate, contemporary uniform polished calf leather. Each volume with library stamp on recto and verso of title and (remains of) label on inside front cover; leather on spine ends sl. worn/torn. Rare account of the situation in the various countries of the world in the second half of the eighteenth century, no copies in Picarta. Contains maps of Europe, Asia, Africa, North America, South America, France (2x), Italy, Spain, the Netherlands, Germany, Poland, Scandinavia, Great Britain and Turkey.

Atlas, (Paris, widow Desaint, 1769), with folding engraved map of Italy and 1 other double-paged map, 12 double-paged engraved city plans and 1 smaller city plan, 5 engraved views (1x double-paged) and 2 plans of buildings, contemporary gilt half leather, 4to. Sl. waterstained in lower margin, strip of leather on top of spine missing and cardboard visible on corners. Good copy with unidentified engraved ex libris (monogram DR) on inside front cover. Compared to the copy digitalized by Google, our atlas has an additional plate (Paestum) that, according to the caption, should be in there. "Un François" = Joseph Jérôme Le François De La Lande (1732-1807). His travel account of Italy appeared in 1769 in 8 duodecimo volumes, and was reprinted several times. On Wikipedia, articles can be found on the work (Italian) and on the author (French). Contains fine, highly detailed plans, provided with extensive legends, of Turin, Milan, Piacenza, Parma, Modena, Bologna, Florence, Rome, Venice, Brescia, Mantua and Genoa, besides a map of the area between Bologna and Ferrara, a double-paged bird's eye view of the ruins of the Greek temples in Paestum and 4 city views in Rome.

1517 [Germany wallchart] Atlas Topographique et Militaire- qui comprend le Royaume de Boheme, les Marquissats de Moravie, et de Lusace, le Duché de Silésie, la Haute et Basse Saxe, les frontieres du Haut Rhin et de Westphalie, et les cartes générales de ces Etats, et du Théâtre de la Guerre presente en Allemagne. Paris, R.J. Julien, 1758, fully engraved and the (sub)maps with border staining, contemporary blue marbled cardboard sides, 4to. Some submaps torn along middle fold, cardboard binding scratched along edges. Good copy. Extremely detailed complete wallchart of the Holy Roman Empire during the Seven Years' War or Third Silesian War (1756-1763). This war is considered the continuation of the War of the Austrian Succession. It was in fact a world war between Prussia, Great Britain and Hannover (the Allies) on one side, and the Russian Empire, Austria, Sweden, Saxony and France on the other. The atlas appears in different configurations. Our copy consists of a plain title, double-paged title cartouche, double-paged explanation of symbols/scale (to be split when set up as wallchart), overview map, 42 double-paged submaps and 6 single-paged submaps. Fully assembled, the map would be circa 200 x 225 cm. in size. Followed by another double-paged overview map of the Atlas Géographique [sic] et Militaire, a smaller double-paged map of the Théâtre de la Guerre, a double-paged map of the siege of Chotzemitz and finally a double-paged overview map of Saxony and surrounding territories.

Ontwikkeld in vier en zeventig staten, en voorafgegaan van eene memorie van toelichting, vergezeld van dire en twintig bijlagen, W.P. Kluit en C.J. Wenckebach. 'S Gravenhage, ter Algemeene Lands-drukkerij, 1833. 290 pp. Large 4to, rebound with new endpapers and using orig. spine and sides. The gunpowder explosion in Leiden took the lives of 151 people, over 2000 were injured and 220 houses became uninhabitable or complete destroyed. The explosion was heard in The Hague. King Louis Napoleon quickly arrived on the scene and led the rebuilding of the city with a dedication unusual for the time. He spent a significant amount of his own funds, and ordered his physician and thousands of soldiers to help. Throughout the country people donated to the cause and a total of 2 million guilders were collected. The logistics of this operation must have been enormous. This report gives an overview of every gifted penny, where it was gifted and where it went. It took 15 years after the disaster before the reports of all municipalities could be bundled; it took another 11 years for this edition to come into existence. € 125 - € 250

Suyderhoef, contemporary blind-stamped ribbed parchment, folio. Apart from some insignificant defects, a very good copy, with the ex libris of the "Doopsgezinde Gemeente bij het Lam en den Toren" on inside front cover. The first complete edition of this important history of Friesland, by the officially appointed provincial historian Pier van Winsum (1586-1644). The first edition appeared in 1629. In our - posthumous - edition a "Laudatio Funeris" by Van Winsum was added by Martin Wybenga, with own title page in red and black and dated 1645. At the end is located the "Oratio" by Van Winsum, published in Franeker in 1641. € 200 - € 400

1537 [Friesland manuscript] Resolutien de anno 1659 - Copia Resolutien de anno 1668- voor de Here Gerhardus Adius (7x)/ Egbert van Baerd (3x), 10 vols. in 2 bindings, 1659-1668 (from 1663 with registers), ca. 1100 pages, contemporary uniform parchment with ribbons, folio (small defects). Mostly contains handwritten copies of resolutions by the Staten van Friesland for Mr. Gerhardus Adius (1627-1676), monitor for the Provinciale Rekenkamer and for the Generaliteitskamer and councillor in the court of Friesland. Vries, O. et al., De heeren van den raede. Biografieën en groepsportret van de raadsheren van het hof van Friesland, 1499-1811 (Hilversum 1999) 309. Several copies (1665-1667 period) for Egbert Hobbes van Baerd (1627-1673), grietman (mayor) of Haskerland and State deputy and later of Generale Staten (NNBW). € 100 - € 200

1538 [Friesland manuscript] Register der Resolutien- van consideratie, genomen bij de Ed. Mog. Heeren Staten van Frielslant te samen gestelt na de orde van het A:B:C. Handwritten index in alphabetical order, ca. 500 pages (incl. blank pages for additions) bound in 20th century half leather with morocco title shield "Register der Resolutien Staten van Friesland 1586-1689", large folio. Different from what is mentioned on the spine, this work includes notes from years up to 1699. An interesting register with resolutions in all possible areas (of collecting), in which many names are mentioned, written in a well-readable, fine hand, prepared ca. 1700. The index begins with the term "Academie", followed by several resolutien, such as "De Academie tot Franqueer sal deselve vrijhey genieten, als aen die van Leyden gegeven is, den 20 april 1586". Another example [on AB books], under B: "Boecken. Placcaet tot redres vande A,B,C, en andere leerboecken, den 5 Martij 1670." The East India Company is given a lot of attention. The final contributions concern te "Vrouwe hertoginnen van Zimmeren". Register der Resolutien genoomen bij de Ed. Mog. Heeren Staten van Friesland van den Jaere 1713 tot 1750 (...) opgesteld na de orde van 't A.B.C. Handwritten index in alphabetical order, ca. 500 pages, uniform binding with the former, lage folio. Very exclusively finished register, written in a beautiful, calligraphic hand with very wide white margins, like the earlier register with contributions in all possible areas. An example: "Boeckverkopers.. Geinterdiceert kan de boekverkopers om soodanig quaad aardig geschrifts tegens Mr. Fargis te drukken oft ut te geeven, als door Mr. Soye na Holland zoude zijn gesonden om aldaar gedrukt te worden den 27 Febr. 1728." "Veilgeld" sees a reference to "Lastgelden", which includes a short restriction on payment. There is a published edition of the Friese resolutien by J. Alexandre de Chalmot (ca. 1730-1801): Register der resolutien en plaacaaten van hun edel mogenden de heeren staaten van Friesland : beginnende met het jaar 1570 en eindigende met 1780 ingesloten: volgens ordre van het alphabet (Kampen, 1784-1785). € 300 - € 600

1539 [Friesland manuscript] Register der Resolutien- der Ed: Mog: Heeren staten van Frielslant genomen, beginnende met den jare 1583 en eindigende Ao. 1712, 't samen gestelt na de orde van 't A.B.C. Handwritten index, paginated per letter with a total of ca. 1400 pages with many thousands of resolutions, contemporary uniform pink sheep leather with gilt-stamped title on spine, folio. With: Register der Resolutien (...) beginnende met den Jare 1712 tot den jaere 1744 (...) opgesteld volgens de orde van 't A:B:C. Handwritten index, ca. 400 pages (incl. index on the index at the end), uniform bound with the former and of the same size (pagination mostly cut off during binding). Contrary to what the titles suggest, both indices include resolutions from later dates, in the first to ca. 1770 and in the second to ca. 1800. The registers were in all probability initially compiled around 1712 and around 1745, kept up to the later dates mentioned. The many thousands of resolutions included concern all possible areas (of collecting); with the letters O and S taking up a conspicuous amount of space: 140 pages, three times as much as most other letters. This is partially caused by included resolutions concerning octrooien (patents), the Oost-Indische Compagnie (East India Company) and Soldijen (salaries), Specien (spices) and Stadhouders (governors). Compare for our registers: J.A. de Chalmot (ca. 1730-1801), Register der resolutien en plaacaaten van hun edel mogenden de heeren staaten van Friesland: beginnende met het jaar 1570 en eindigende met 1780 ingesloten : volgens ordre van het alphabet (Kampen 1784-1785). Perhaps Chalmot used our registers for this publication, but we have not been able to verify this (there exists no E-book of Chalmot's work). € 500 - € 1000

1627 [Dordrecht] Directory for Dordrecht 1879- Dordrecht, J. Giltaj en Zoon, (1878), VII,(1),120,183,(1),(64 advertisement) p., with double-page lithographed city plan and folding lithographed plan of the district Dordrecht, original gilt-lettered cloth. Excellent copy of a very rare publication, no copies in Picarta! The advertisements are printed on green paper. With: 2 similar directories for Dordrecht (1893-1894 and 1894-1895, also very rare). (total 3).

1628 [The Hague and surroundings] Adresboekje voor de stad 's Gravenhage- Negende Jaargang. 1860-1861. Den Haag, H.C. Susan, 1860, (4),150 p., contemporary half cloth. With several pasted and loose newspaper clippings (one concerning a later edition of the directory), because of this occasionally browned (incl. title page). Very rare directory with a nice origin: on endpaper the contemporary note: "Lange Houtstraat. Wel Edle Geboren Heer Carel Jan Gijsbert Baron van Hardenbroeck van 's Heerenberg en Bergambacht Kamerheer des Konings". This original owner has added some improvements and additions in pen in the book; for his own entry (p. 48), for example, he struck through the address Voorhout 24 and made it Houtstraat. With: 6 later similar, including Officieel Adresboek van Voorburg (1922-1923) and 4 (telephone) directories of Wassenaar. (total 7).

1631 [Rotterdam] J.W. van Leenhoff's Adresboek 1859- (Rotterdam), Handelsdrukkerij J.W. van Leenhoff, (1858), 82,462 p., contemporary cloth. Stained/foxed copy with occasional small defects, cloth on hinges split. The title page could also be the original front cover, the final name mentioned on page 462 is Zwanevelt, so almost certainly complete. Exceptionally rare, early directory of which we could not find any other copy; not even in Picarta! The book is printed in small type and contains an enormous amount of information. The first 43 pages contain addresses and names of government institutions, schools, societies etc., followed by a kind of Yellow Pages with the most important professions, companies etc. (to p. 82). After that the List of names follows the city's neighbourhoods (to p. 247) and the book concludes with a name list in alphabetic order (p.248-462).

1633 Nieuw adresboek van de stad Utrecht 1878- (No place, publisher or year), (1877), (4),286,(2) p., modern half cloth. An unknown (but substantial) number of pages in the list of most important professions is missing at the end; else strips are cut from some pages. Sold w.a.f. Exceptionally rare directory, no copies in Picarta! Picarta does include (only one copy) the predecessor of our Nieuw Adresboek: het Adresboek van de Stad Utrecht 1866 by R. Dufour, who may be the compiler of our edition too. With: Almanak voor de Provincie Noord-Brabant, including the Adresboek der Stad 's Hertogenbosch voor 1885-1886. Den Bosch, J. Klaassens, 1885, 205,54,(1) (advertisement) p., original printed sides with cloth spine, cuts with promotional texts, small 8vo (used copy with notes, markings). Very rare. This is the copy of the Headmaster F.A.L. Bruystens, with his signature and stamp on unused endpaper. And with 2 similar including Almanak met Adresboek van het Arrondissement Roermond 1872 (very rare).

- 1640 Robert Baden-Powell. Original signed letter in pen, - to "Mr. E. Dudley", concerning the illness of the latter's son, officer with the South African Constabulary [S.A.C.], dated "Johannesburg October 21st 1902", on paper with S.A.C. letterhead, only written on recto, 26.5 x 20.3 cm. In the letter Baden-Powell explains that, according to the medical staff, the son of the recipient was showing signs of illness before he joined the S.A.C. (a kind of colonial police), and that these signs do not stem from the nature of his work there. Although according to the doctors the son cannot do the work anymore, he can lead a normal life as a civilian. Baden-Powell apologizes for not being able to do anything for the son. € 150 - € 300
