Conditions of Sale

- All EU clients purchasing goods have to pay a buyer's premium of 26% of the amount for which the items has been knocked down. Successful online bids through Invaluable will be charged with an extra 5%. Paypal costs and/or shipping costs will be charged to the buyer as well.
- Each buyer is held to buy for his own account and cannot claim any commission.
- The highest bidder shall be the buyer. Floor and written bids always take precedence over absentee bids left at Invaluable.com. The auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to settle any dispute. The auctioneer reserves the right to divide or to unite lots and to refuse any bid. In case of error or dispute with respect to bidding, the auctioneer is entitled to re-open the bidding. If any dispute arises after the sale, our sale records are always conclusive.
- Artworks by living artists and artists who died no longer than 70 years ago that are sold with a hammer price of 2500 euros or higher, will be charged with an extra 4% ('droit de suite', 'wet Volgrecht', 'resale right Law') over the total amount of hammerprice and buyer's premium.
- The goods are in good condition, unless otherwise stated. If any named item in this catalogue proves defective, the item may be returned, provided this is done within one week after the sale. This guarantee does not cover lots indicated as 'w.a.f'.
In addition, the following conditions apply to the art, graphics and poster departments:
 - All objects in the auction are described in good conscience. However, descriptions, as well as verbal statements made before or during the auction, do not represent more than an opinion, and do not in any way constitute a guarantee of authenticity, date, origin, etc.
 - Barring notable exceptions, the condition of the lots is not mentioned in the catalogue. Mention of any defect does not imply the absence of others. Each object is sold in the condition it is in at the time of auction. Prospective buyers must verify the condition themselves during the viewing days (additional photos can be supplied).
 - The risk of damage to a purchased lot rests with the buyer from the moment the auctioneer accepts the buyer's bid as the highest bid during the auction.
- If a buyer can demonstrate - to the satisfaction of the auctioneer - within four weeks after the auction that an object purchased by him is a forgery, the purchase will be dissolved and the purchase price fully refunded, provided the lot is returned in the condition in which it was sold.
- In case intending purchasers are prevented from attending the sale personally, the auctioneer will execute their bids without any charge. 'Buy' bids are not accepted. In case of equal bids, the first bid is accepted. Written bids, telephone bids and bids by email should be received by the auction house before 4 pm prior to the session. Bidding by phone is possible, provided a phone line is available. Zwigelaar Auctions cannot be held responsible for failing to make contact with a telephone bidder, nor can we held responsible for errors or omissions in connection with Invaluable.com.
- The prices are in euros. The bidding will start at the price between the brackets.
- Bids are raised at fixed increments:
up to € 200 by € 10; € 200 - € 500 by € 20; € 500 - € 1000 by € 50; € 1000 - € 2000 by € 100; € 2000 - € 5000 by € 200; amounts higher than € 5000 will be raised by € 500 etc.
- All books must be paid for within one week after receipt of the invoice. In case the buyer fails to pay within one week, the auctioneer shall be entitled to exercise one of the following rights: 1. Charge extra administrative costs of 25 euros; 2. Proceed for damages for breach of contract; 3. rescind the sale of that or any lots sold to the buyer and re-sell the lot or lots whereupon the defaulting buyer shall pay to the auctioneer any shortfall between the proceeds of that sale after deduction of costs of re-sale and the total sum due.
- Shipping takes place at the expense and risk of the buyer and after full payment of the invoice. The auction house is not responsible for damage or loss caused by the courier. However, the auction house can advise on shipping and insurance.
- Purchases can be collected by appointment only and not after or during a session.
- The buyer must be aware of the above auction conditions.

The Hans Oosterbaan collection

Hans Oosterbaan was a fervent and well-known collector of Arts and Graphic design in its broadest sense. He was immersed in the world of Arts and Graphic design by Karel Levisson as of 1975, the year he moved to Amsterdam. Both his move and Levisson's incentive sparked an unassuming zest that would result in a remarkable life's work.

Hans was a regular at fairs, auctions and markets, searching for treasures, but also to share his knowledge, interests and his willingness to assist friends, advise dealers and share thoughts with fellow collectors. The result of his quest and broad interest was stored in his house where a massive and versatile collection of everything and anything related to paper was stored. All gems well-organized in drawers, acid-free ring binders and boxes, but also hidden in piles and boxes waiting to be unpacked.

The collection is composed of graphic design in all its forms and varieties: brochures, leaflets, booklets, advertisements, packaging designs, blotting papers, magazines, poster stamps and, above all, posters. One of Oosterbaan's special interests can be found in the post-war graphic designers, illustrators and artists such as Willem Sandberg, Nicolaas Wijnberg, Dick Elffers, Gielijn Escher and Wim Crowel. Modernism of the 20s and 30s is also well-represented in this collection: he considered the radical design by Zwart and Schuitema, but also by De Koo, Huszár, Fré Cohen, Co-op 2, Machteld den Hertog, Gispen, van Nelle (Jac Jongert) and Copier to be the highlight of the Interbellum. His Wit over Zwart (White on Black) collection (a journey into the western -usually condescending and stereotypical- view regarding other cultures), his numerous Cas Oorthuys' photo montages, his many leftist publications on Russia, SDAP, NJC, the Spanish Civil War and pacifism also proved to be well represented and will be auctioned in auction 30 of this year.

Hans was not only interested in these specific fields, he was a skilled omnivore in search of deeper understanding of connections between designers, the era in which a design was created, how works and artists were intertwined. All his in-depth findings and objects were methodically and meticulously collected, traced back to its origins, categorized, described, and stored. And all this for each type of design and interest; typography, publishers, book companies, ex libris, labels, aviation, marine, travelling, menus, theatre leaflets, advertisements (on dentists, zoos, cooks, clothing, food products, furniture and so on). The genuine common thread is his belief that quality determines the value of design and vice versa.

In December of 2022 Hans passed away. He left an impressive, intelligent and thorough collection. It is a legacy we consider to be one of the most remarkable ones we have come across, a legacy as sparkling, humorous and special as the collector himself.

* The collection Hans Oosterbaan will be presented in several auctions at both Van Sabben Poster Auctions in Hoorn and Zwigelaar Auctions in Amsterdam.

Frits Booy, Sinterklaasboeken, p. 4, online article in Lexicon van de jeugdliteratuur, DBNL, 2002: "Ook bijzonder is het berijmde St. Nicolaas' reis door Nederland (1876). Dankzij dit boek kreeg de jeugd enige kennis van ons land: Sint en knecht reizen te paard langs zestien grote steden, onder meer Amsterdam en de provinciehoofdsteden. De knecht draagt in dit boek een rokje en een fez; hij wordt Moortje of Pik(kie) genoemd. Ook zijn er zedenlessen te leren: Sint mijmert dat een zwarte knecht goed is, ook al is hij zwart. Schiedam wordt bekritiseerd vanwege de jeneverstokerijen aldaar." And cf. Lust en Leering. Geschiedenis van het Nederlandse kinderboek in de negentiende eeuw, p. 325-326, listing a version w. uncol. lithogr. plates: "De maker van dit groot formaat prentenboek heeft een origineel uitgangspunt gekozen. Vergezeld van zijn knecht komt Sint op zijn paard aan bij de grens van Nederland, waar een douanebeame hen begroet en doorlaat. Dan begint hun reis en bezoeken ze op één dag zestien steden in ons land. (...) Het lijkt meer op een vakantiereis van Sint door Nederland dan het belonen van goede en straffen van stoute kinderen, iets wat hij hier maar aan zijn knecht overlaat. Nicolaas bezoekt telkens een fraai gebouw of monument dat dan meestal op de achtergrond staat afgebeeld." € 70 - € 140

Around 1907 Wilhelm was involved in the Hardenberg-Eulenburg affaire and there is a slight hint to his alleged homosexuality at the end of the novel: 'Keizer Wilhelm en Frans Josef kusten elkander herhaaldelijk en met een innigheid, die duidelijk bewees, dat ze niet alleen aan een vorm wenschten te voldoen.' € 100 - € 200

Manuscript in pen, (42) p., written down in a well-legible hand in a copy of The Auckland exercise book produced by Uptons Booksellers & Stationers, Auckland, orig. printed wr., 4to. Wrappers splitting on spine. Joseph Forall is mentioned in an online available Shipping Summary in the New Zealand Herald, Volume XVII, Issue 5729, 29 March 1880, page 6, and in the Auckland Star, Volume X, Issue 3077, 1 March 1880, Page 2, together with the many other passengers that travelled on the barque Stracathro, that arrived on March 1st 1880 in Auckland, New Zealand. In this nice account Forall informs us about the journey from day to day. He travels together with Joseph Heathcote, his mother and Mary Smith ("Heathcote, sweetheart"). Forall informs us about the places they pass, the weather conditions (incl. many bad storms and periods of unfavourable wind), the singing, dancing, music-making, cardplaying, the sighting of flying fish and all kinds of birds, dinners ("porridge and treacle") and rations for alcoholic beverages on board, as well as on the sea-sickness that several passengers experience at the beginning. On the 29th of November, during the night, the Stracathro passes the ship Luthra (?) "in a sinking condition, and without a soul on board". A terrible accident takes place on the 9th of december: "A Swedish sailor fell from aloft on to the (...) deck, broke a thigh and arm, the bone of the thigh sticking through the flesh and entered the deck an inch deep. I have seen him several times today. They have him stretched on a board in the forecastle (sailor's room) and a sailor is in attendance, bathing his head, his skull is badly broke, and his features is completely altered, as his face is awfully swelled (...)." At the end: So having arrived at my destination I will close my account of a journey from London to Auckland NZ in the Scotch ship Stracathro March 1st 1880". The final few pages are written in Whatawhata Waikato on May 20th 1880, and concern all kinds of advice "to any one intending to take a Voyage this country, New Zealand, or any other long voyage in the first place (...)", like bringing your own bed, your own soap, having enamelled drinking vessels and plates, bringing baking powder in bottles, apples, lemons, carbonate of soda, preserved milk etc. "Also something to pass on time, such as books, musical instruments etc. If females they should be well provided with sewing knitting, etc." € 400 - € 800

- 325 Johan van Oldenbarnevelt (1547-1619). Manuscript document - Document in pen on vellum, signed "Van Oldenbarnevelt", 15.5 x 31 cm, dated "IX Augustij XV achten-negentig" (?), about "drie morgen landts gelegen inde ambachte van Maeslant", under passepartout. Lacks the wax seal. Intriguing manuscript, mentioning Jan Lenaertsz, most probably Jan Lenaertsz van de Vennecool (or Fenacoliu, 1577-1645), friend of Van Oldenbarnevelt and preacher in Maeslantsluis (Maasluis), that still belonged to Maeslant at the time. Autographs by Van Oldenbarnevelt are exceedingly rare, the close connection between Van Oldenbarnevelt and Fenacoliu might be the reason Van Oldenbarnevelt handled this notarial deed himself.

Sm. 8vo., modern gilt half leather. 2 parts in one vol., (10), 160; 41, (1) p., (pag. wrong in places), w. folded table, 36 engr. fold. plates and 1 movable print in ink. The very rare original edition of this mathematical treatise, with all but plate Z1 conforming to the binder's index. We could not verify (no copies with plates digitized online), but we suspect that plate Z1 was executed in pen in all copies, due to the layering of the plate and a description on page 60. In addition, all engraved plates left a faint imprint on the opposite spine of the plate before, the plate before plate Z1 only has a faint embossed impression due to the layering of Z1. The two digitized copies (1x edition ca. 1800) in the library in Ghent have no plates, but also no binder's index on the verso of the praise poem, two copies in the Netherlands (Amsterdam and Delft) do not mention plates. This suggests that copies without plates were also issued. A nice element of this edition are the puns: the name of the author on the title page (in a special diamond shape) and on the praise poem, where every letter of Van Dycke's full name is used as the first letter of a stanza (see images). (1706), (4), 190, (17 index) p., w. 2 fold. engr. maps and 4 fold. engr. plates, contemp. vellum. Some browning/foxing, and offsetting from a manuscript index tipped-onto first blank, vellum sl. dust-soiled. A very good copy of the second 8vo edition, issued in the same year as the first. The first 8vo edition is dated 1706, and has a sl. different ending of the title-p.: "nu alder eerst na een egt af-schrift in't ligt gegeeuen" (without the indication "den alderlaasten druk"). It also has a privilege behind the introd., "Druckfouten aldus te verbeeteren" at the end (in our edition these are corrected in the text), and sl. other differences compared to our edition. The pagination and plates are the same. Both editions are rare. Landwehr, V.O.C. 291; Tiele 944. Very interesting travel account, probably published for the first time around 1698. As indicated on the title-p. the author suffered incredible hardship during his voyage, this was the result of a mutiny on his ship by his largely Chinese and Javanese crew. He was outlawed by the V.O.C., but successfully continued his journey. His account contains the first extensive description of Borneo. € 300 - € 600

Han van Gelder (1923-2012) was a Dutch director, who made a short film titled "Adventures in perception" on Escher, that was nominated for an Oscar. Wikipedia: "Hoogtepunt was een film die Van Gelder in 1969 in opdracht van het Ministerie van Buitenlandse Zaken maakte over de graficus Maurits Cornelis Escher: Adventures in perception of Met het oog op avontuur. De film kreeg prijzen en eervolle vermeldingen op verschillende filmfestivals en werd in 1972 genomineerd voor een Oscar. Escher zelf was vooral verrast om in de film te zien hoe het door hem bedachte Wentelteefje of Rolpens echt ging lopen, rollen en weer stoppen." The letter deals with this documentary: "Tot mijn spijt zal ik niet bij de "Première" van mijn film aanwezig kunnen zijn: begin of half januari zal ik, nogmaals, een lichte operatie moeten ondergaan (...). Er zijn nog 2 kritische opmerkingen te maken: 1) Verscheidene van mijn vrienden hebben mij er op gewezen, dat het stukje v.d. film waarop ik zelf te zien ben, te rood is: "zo'n bakstenen-rood gezicht heb je niet", zeggen ze ls er nog wat aan te doen? (...) Ik wens u beiden het allerbeste toe in het nieuwe jaar 1971!" Together with: a very rare flyer for the film, the first in the series "The living Arts in the Netherlands".
